RS uproar as fuel and cooking gas prices begin post-poll rally

House adjourned twice as Opposition MPs troop into the Well of the House

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ New Delhi

THE Rajya Sabha witnessed noisy scenes and multiple adjournments on Tuesday as the Opposition targeted the government for increasing fuel and cooking gas prices soon after the state elections. According to the latest price hike announced on Tuesday, petrol and diesel will cost 80 paise more while domestic cooking gas will be dearer by ₹50 per cylinder.

The rates will differ from state to state depending on the incidence of local taxes such as value-added tax. Petrol will now cost ₹96.21 a litre in Delhi as against ₹95.41 previously while diesel rates have gone up from ₹86.67 per litre to ₹87.47, according to a price notification of state-owned fuel retailers. In Mumbai, the petrol price has been hiked by ₹0.84 per litre to ₹110.82 per litre, and diesel by ₹0.86 to ₹95 per litre.

With the crucial elections to five states over, the Centre will likely allow state-owned oil marketing companies to effect gradual increase in prices over next few days to help them recoup the losses incurred from keeping prices on hold for a record 137 days at a stretch.

Raising the issue in the Rajya Sabha on Tuesday, Congress, TMC and Left parties forced two adjournments of proceedings.

During the Zero Hour, Trinamool members insisted that their notice on price rise under Rule 267 be admitted. As soon as the listed papers were laid on the table of the House, Opposition MPs were on their feet, raising the issue of price rise. Rajya Sabha Chairman M Venkaiah Naidu said he had not accepted the notices given by Shaktisinh Gohil (Cong), Dola Sen (TMC), V Sivadasan, Elamaram Kareem and John Brittas (CPI-M) under Rule 267, requiring setting aside of the listed agenda to take up a discussion. He said the issue can be discussed during demands for grants of the ministries. But TMC members stormed into the well carrying placards. The Congress, Left, SP and Shiv Sena members also shouted slogans. P13

'Need ₹20 / litre hike to match crude oil price'

According to a new report by CRISIL Research, a steep increase of ₹15-20 per litre is required to fully pass through a $30 per barrel increase in the cost of raw material (crude oil)

Fitch cuts FY23 growth forecast on high oil prices

Rating agency Fitch on Tuesday slashed India's growth forecast for FY23 to 8.5% from 10.3%, citing soaring energy prices and rising inflation on account of the Russia-Ukraine war. It has revised upwards the GDP growth forecast for FY22 to 8.7%

TMC's 'revenge': 2 kids among 8 charred to death

ENS @ Kolkata

EIGHT people, including two children, were charred to death after their houses were gutted in the wee hours of Tuesday in West Bengal's Birbhum district, in an alleged case of revenge attack hours after the murder of a Trinamool Congress panchayat leader. Seven charred bodies were recovered from one of the burnt houses, while one injured person died in hospital. Eleven people have so far been arrested in the case, the police said.

It all began after TMC's panchayat deputy chief of Barshal village, Bhadu Sheikh, was murdered around 8.30 pm on Monday. Hours later, at least eight houses were allegedly set on fire in Bogtui village on the outskirts of Rampurhat town. While West Bengal Governor Jagdeep Dhankhar described the deaths as horrific and alleged that the state is in the grip of a culture of 'violence and lawlessness', CM Mamata Banerjee told him not to make unwarranted statements. Meanwhile, minister Partha Chatterjee said the government has set up a special investigation team to probe the matter and sent a minister to the spot. P10

Karnataka resolution to target TN on Mekedatu

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bengaluru

THE state government has decided to pass a resolution in both Houses of the legislature, condemning the resolution passed on Monday by the Tamil Nadu Assembly against the Mekedatu reservoir project.

In the Assembly, members from all parties condemned the Tamil Nadu decision and urged the state government to pass the resolution condemning it on Wednesday after consulting legal experts, said Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai.

Leader of Opposition Siddaramaiah said that let any party, including their own, be against the Mekedatu project in Tamil Nadu, but it is needed for people's welfare in Karnataka.

Former chief minister BS Yediyurappa said there could be several differences between parties in the Assembly, but when it comes to land and water, they are all united.

Bommai said that whenever Karnataka takes up a project related to Cauvery, Tamil Nadu has the habit of opposing it. "Tamil Nadu is utilising additional water which is not their share and taking up the reservoir work down south without permission. We will pass the resolution against this as well," the Chief Minister said.

MEDICAL EDUCATION FEE TO BE REGULATED IN STATE SOON

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bengaluru

MEDICAL education fee will be regulated shortly, announced Health and Medical Education Minister Dr K Sudhakar on Tuesday. The state has already formed a new fee regulation committee that will analyse private medical colleges in the state, categorise them and decide on the fee that can be collected, he added. The Basavaraj Bommai government announced the setting up of this committee during the budget session.

"The state government will take all possible measures to provide opportunities for poor children to enter medical colleges. The committee will recommend the fees particularly for private medical colleges," Sudhakar said.

The committee will categorise private medical colleges into A, B, C and D, based on their infrastructure and NAAC (National Assessment and Accreditation Council) assessment, the staff, equipment, clinical exposure etc. The fees would then be fixed based on the recommendations made by the committee, he said.

The state government already has a fee regulatory committee, which is appointed by the higher education department. The new committee, however, will look into only fees for medical courses, sources said.

Tender for Hebbal flyover to be floated in April: CM

Estimated cost is ₹244 cr; Bommai says funds won't be an issue

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Bengaluru

IN order to reduce burden on the existing Hebbal flyover that connects Kempegowda International Airport and Bengaluru North, the State government, which is expected to finalise the design, will float a tender in April, said Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai.

Bommai said that the traffic load on Mekri Circle, after the construction of underpass, was shifted to Hebbal. "We have almost finalised the design and it is in public domain for opinion. There are many stake holders for this project including BDA, BMRCL, BBMP and others. Once we get the opinion, we will float a tender in April," he said.

BMRCL has estimated the cost to be Rs 244 crore, he said. "Funding will not be an issue, we will do it," he assured.

The CM was replying to Byatarayanapura MLA and Congress leader Krishna Byregowda who raised the issue of Hebbal flyover and said that it was constructed during the Congress regime, 20 years ago. But over the last few years, with the airport coming up and rapid development of Bengaluru North, has resulted in traffic snarl of around 30-45 minutes which is causing inconvenience to many.

In 2018 during the coalition government, he said, they had kept Rs 80 crore aside under the CM's Nagarottana scheme for widening the flyover which was stopped as BMRCL proposed a metro line to the airport. "In the last three years, government is only focusing on re-design which has now been approved, but no progress," he said.

Heritage structures to stay in Cubbon park

BENGALURU: Horticulture Minister Muniratna informed the Council that there is no proposal before the government to exclude heritage buildings at Cubbon Park from the 'park zone'. BJP MLC Tejaswini Gowda raised the issue of excluding Century Club in Cubbon Park from the park zone to facilitate renovation of the structure. She said as the club falls under the 'park zone', construction activity is banned. In reply, the minister said the government wants to protect heritage structures at Cubbon Park. "If we exclude one building, others will also come with blueprints of new buildings. This will lead to demolition of heritage structures. So, we can not drop Century Club from park zone and there is no consideration before the government to exclude any building at Cubbon Park from park zone," he clarified.

ACB swoops down on 9 BDA 'middlemen'

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bengaluru

ANTI-Corruption Bureau (ACB) sleuths on Tuesday conducted massive search operations at the residences of nine suspects in Bengaluru, allegedly operating as middlemen in the Bangalore Development Authority (BDA), influencing officials.

This is the first time that the ACB raided middlemen and the operation involved over 100 officers. However, no arrests were made.

A senior ACB officer said the searches began in the early hours of Tuesday at the residences of Raghu BN in Chamarajpet; Mohan in Manorayanapalya near RT Nagar; Manoj in Domlur; Munirathna alias Rathnavelu in Mallathalli; Tejaswi in Rajarajeshwari Nagar; Aswath alias Muddinapalya Ashwat in KG Circle Muddinapalya; Rama and Laxmana in Chamundeshwarinagar, BDA Layout; and Chikkahanummaiah in Muddinapalya.

According to officials, one of the middlemen had filed a complaint with the city police accusing BDA officials of cheating. The complaint alleged that a huge amount of money was paid for the transfer of BDA officials.

During the raid, the team found stashes of cash, 4.96 kg of gold, 15.02 kg of silver and 61.9 gm of diamonds (600 cents).

Mohan, the main accused, allegedly created forged documents in the name of displaced farmers to allocate BDA sites to themselves. Some other middlemen managed to escape, as they had apparently been alerted about the raids on Monday night.

ACB officials said action will be taken against BDA officials involved in malpractice.

BDA Chairman SR Vishwanth said those raided have to show documents to prove how they accumulated properties and valuables, and reveal their sources of income to ACB officials.

The raids were conducted under the supervision of Uma Prashant, Superintendent of Police, ACB Headquarters.

Apartment owners hunt for papers to avoid Palike net

BOSKY KHANNA @ Bengaluru

FOLLOWING notices to apartment complexes in RR Ngar from Bruhat Bengaluru Mahanagara Palike (BBMP) seeking documents on the legality of their property, after an ongoing court case, members of other apartment associations are also seeking property details and documents from their builders.

The fear among apartment complex associations is more in areas like RR Nagar, Mahadevapura, Bannerghatta Road, Bommanahalli, Bellandur and Whitefield, and the 110 villages where many apartment clusters stand.

Ahead of the High Court hearing on unauthorised constructions and improper self-assessment of properties, the BBMP engineers had issued notices to apartment complex associations seeking details. With the hearing slated after three months, the association members have already started to prepare their ground. Some are even approaching Real Estate Regulatory Authority-Karnataka (Rera-K) seeking details of the builders and if there are any ongoing cases or litigation against their apartment complex.

"The apartment association members are checking the legality status of their properties. They are collecting all documents pertaining to their property including the ones which are to be with the builder like the occupancy certificate, building plan approval, sanction plans and fitness certificates. Even though the court has given three months time, the rush is high due to worry over demolition of property," said a member of the Bengaluru Apartments Federation (BAF).

> The apartment association members are checking the legality status of their properties
> Member, Bengaluru Apartments Federation

There are around 2.10 lakh apartments in Bengaluru, of which only 1,088 are registered with the BAF.

"If any property doesn't have proper documents, the BBMP officials are also at fault as they have allowed the apartments dwellers stay and are collecting property taxes also," the member pointed.

Potholes killed 7 in 5 months: Cong MLC

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Bengaluru

DURING the Zero Hour, Congress MLC UB Venkatesh raised the issue of pothole deaths in Bengaluru city and claimed that seven deaths were reported in five months. He pointed out that the recent CAG report had also exposed the deplorable condition of the roads including some highways.

"As per the Karnataka State Road Safety Authority, every main road has 19-20 potholes that could be fatal for commuters. Though the government spends crores on roads, it will be damaged due to rain. The government should focus more on road management," Venkatesh said.

Meanwhile, JDS MLC Ramesh Gowda said the terrible condition of stormwater drains had claimed the life of a 14-year-old girl on Monday, as she was unable to use the subway near Hebbal as it was inundated due to rain.

Welfare committee for transgenders

Women and Child Development minister Achar Halappa said the government will establish a committee for the welfare of transgenders. Replying to a question from BJP MLC Bharathi Shetty, he said a survey will be conducted to know the exact number of gender minorities in the state.

Daily Starscope

PETER VIDAL

23rd March : The current heavenly alignment represents the beginning of a new cycle and the build-up of a fresh wave of energy. However, tradition states that it's a fine time for a rest, and that we can all put off urgent tasks for another few days. Sit back and make plans for when the time comes!

ARIES (Mar 21 - Apr. 20)
Deep inside you crave emotional adventure. Some of you, especially March-born Ariens, have had enough of one particular relationship. It's time to move on and make way for more interesting companions. But it's also good for you to look to older or wiser people for the right advice.

TAURUS (Apr. 21 - May 21)
There's no chance of your head ruling your heart at the moment. Quite the contrary. Almost every important step you take will be dominated by passions and feelings that are beyond your control. That's the simple reason why you should be sensibly cautious.

GEMINI (May 22 - June 21)
You are very trusting, but the fact is that certain individuals don't have your brand of integrity. You may therefore be best advised to maintain a cautious distance from people who are acting strangely. Inspiration is one thing, the wilder fringes of your imagination, another!

CANCER (June 22 - July 23)
Everything that occurred towards the end of last week was pushing you in one direction. What happens now may be pulling you in another. Don't be unduly concerned by the consequences of changing your plans. You might find that partners are more willing to adjust and adapt than you thought.

LEO (July 24 - Aug. 23)
Don't allow domestic problems to undermine your confidence at work. Probably the major issue today is money, and your latent insecurity may be popping its head above the covers. Don't worry, though, for the stars are actually in a relatively benign mood.

VIRGO (Aug. 24 - Sept. 23)
You must wait and see what transpires next week before making fresh plans. You see, your grasp on reality may be a little slight at the moment, not that you're unusual in that! On the other hand, your imagination is in fine fettle. It's all down to those strange bedfellows, Neptune and Mars.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 - Oct. 23)
The Moon is currently expressing a secretive influence on your Libran psyche. There'll be a lot going on that you'd rather not talk about, and nobody should expect you to betray confidences. They'd better stand back and allow you to do what you think is proper.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22)
The current fascinating relationship between Venus, Uranus and a clutch of other planets, is maintaining a lively mood, and we must therefore anticipate a number of options. Among these are dramatically changed travel plans, adventurous journeys and electrifying romances.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 - Dec. 22)
If you have an Achilles' heel, it's probably your repeated failure to account for the consequences of your actions. The Moon should remind you that all ambitious steps must be carefully planned. But such planning is almost impossible today, so enjoy your day-dreams but don't expect anything to come of them!

CAPRICORN (Dec. 23 - Jan. 20)
You must beware of getting embroiled in power struggles. You see, other people think only the best of you and, if you respond in kind, you could be on the receiving end of some truly amazing generosity over the coming weeks. In many ways, you deserve a stroke of good luck.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 - Feb. 19)
This should be a period of renewed hope and optimism. When planets move into lively regions of your chart, as they are now beginning to do, you should find that, although partners expect more of you, you will benefit from their abundant help and best wishes. If you're having trouble making up your mind then that's your prerogative.

PISCES (Feb. 20 - Mar 20)
Take extra care when gambling, taking risks, or indulging in speculative ventures of all kinds. Granted, there are profits to be made, but your judgment and timing will have to be impeccable. The moment you take your eye off the ball, then events will begin to take a number of strange twists.

Health analytics will turn IISc into med research hub

Centre to help form policy, study diseases

CHETANA BELAGERE @ Bengaluru

IN the next four years, Indian Institute of Science (IISc) is set to emerge as an important institute contributing significantly in research and field data-based policies around public health.

Recent contributions towards the Centre for Public Health and Policy Research on the campus, adjacent to the upcoming medical hospital, is going to be a 360-degree approach to the institute, says Ajit Isaac, Chairman, Quess Corp, in an exclusive interview to TNIE. Ajit Isaac and wife Sarah Isaac made a commitment to donate Rs 105 crore to set up the centre. According to him, the centre will create a niche for health data science and analytics through close collaboration with the existing world class computer science and data science departments at IISc.

The idea took seed about six months ago, when IISc's director approached Ajit Isaac, proposing setting up of a super speciality hospital. Isaac Foundation was already setting up a paediatric centre at Christian Medical College Vellore and didn't want to digress, so he told them he would be interested in setting up a public health research institute adjacent to the hospital.

Helping governance

IISc can become an important institute that can help the government come up with research and field data based policies around public health, Isaac said. "During an epidemic, when the country or state is dealing with zillions of data of people, paradigms of behaviours that change in context of circumstances, vaccines, weather, climate change, water and sanitation, sewage etc, there is a need to triangulate all this and help state governments bring out policies and develop governance guidelines. It needs computational abilities which IISc has," he added.

Explaining that the centre will offer dual degree programmes such as MPH-PhD and MPH-MTech, he said it will also fund research projects on public health, support international fellowships for students, scholarships, visiting chairs and endowed chair professorships, and also field projects. IISc has decided on six projects, which will cover chronic disease areas of India. "Diabetes and cardiac care are two instances which we necessarily have to investigate," Isaac said. The centre was born in the middle of a pandemic and it's still too early to analyse its effects. The Long Covid phenomenon and mental health will also be expected sectors for research, he added.

Asked if he thinks there is a growing trend of first-generation contributors, he said, "With capital markets growing and the ability to find liquidity for some enterprises that entrepreneurs have invested in, clearly there is a trend to give back part of the harvest to society in some way."

Monitor glucose, BP on your phone now

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

HERE is a painless and a needleless way to monitor your glucose levels on your smartphone without using any external devices, thanks to digital health platform, Mfine.

It announced on Tuesday that it has added BP and glucose monitoring solutions to its self-check health tools that are available on its app. According to MFine, the BP monitoring tool is being used by 10,000 people in the country. The glucose monitoring tool is currently on a trial run and is expected to go live in the coming weeks, the company stated.

The MFine vitals' measurement feature has been in development for two years with deep AI research conducted in partnership with leading hospitals and trials conducted in over 3,000 patients. MFine has built a proprietary algorithm that measures blood pressure by obtaining a PhotoPlethysmoGram (PPG) signal from the user's fingertip when it is placed on the smartphone camera. By observing changes in colour across red and blue wavelengths of the PPG signal, a prediction of BP and glucose is made. The algorithm can measure BP with up to 90 per cent accuracy, it said.

According to MFine, the BP monitoring tool is being used by 10,000 people in the country

Dr Sreekanth Shetty, Interventional Cardiologist, Sakra World Hospital, said, "Hypertension and diabetes are rising in India at a phenomenal rate and it is important for people to monitor their health effectively and in a timely manner. Smartphone technology will prove to be a gamechanger in preventive health and vitals monitoring."

Ajit Narayanan, CTO, MFine said, "Advances in areas of big data, artificial intelligence and mobile technology have opened new opportunities for monitoring health, detecting and preventing diseases using smartphones."

STATE WELL-PREPARED TO HANDLE ANY FUTURE COVID WAVE: SUDHAKAR

BENGALURU: With concerns over BA-2 sublineage variant of Omicron spreading globally, Health and Medical Education Minister Dr K Sudhakar on Tuesday said that the state is well-prepared and is geared up to tackle the new Covid variant with its past experience of handling the earlier three waves. He said, "Our doctors, infrastructure and everything is well-augmented and we are prepared to handle any fourth wave." He, however, said that India's unprecedented vaccination coverage may itself offer great protection and reduce the impact of any future wave. A meeting with Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai and Technical Advisory Committee will soon be held to understand the current Covid situation and whether there is a need to impose any stricter measures. He stressed that following Covid-appropriate behaviour, especially wearing of mask, is mandated till the World Health Organisation declares that Covid is gone. ENS

HC: Cops cannot seize passport under CrPC

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

THE Karnataka High Court held that the power available to a court or the police under Section 104 or 102 of the CrPC for impounding a document cannot be stretched to confiscate the passport of an accused facing criminal proceedings. A passport deposited before the court or held by the police can be without the authority of law, the court added.

Justice M Nagaprasanna passed the order while allowing a petition filed by Praveen Surendiran (34) from Bellandur in the city, questioning the order passed by the trial court rejecting the release of his passport.

Since the passport is in police custody, the petitioner, who is accused No. 10, contended that he cannot travel with his son to get him admitted to a school in Paris. Till now, his son, who is in eighth standard, was attending online classes and now physical classes have started. He has to travel to France and stay there till August 1, 2022, he pleaded before the court.

HIJAB CASE: ADVOCATES' BODY CONDEMNS THREAT TO JUDGES

At a special general body meeting earlier this week with regard to the life threat made to the Chief Justice of the Karnataka High Court by an organisation from Madurai, following the hijab verdict, the Advocates Association of Bangalore resolved to condemn it. Also, the association has decided to hold a protest on Wednesday in front of the High Court. Meanwhile, the Karnataka State Bar Council condemned the death threat issued to the judges too. Chairman of the Council, Motakpalli Kashinath, said that such threats will not deter judicial institutions from discharging their functions.

Spl court rejects B report, summons minister Somanna

Plaint says he gave false statement on properties

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

A Special Court that exclusively deals with criminal cases related to elected MPs and MLAs in the state on Monday issued a summons to Housing Minister V Somanna to appear before it over a disproportionate assets case filed in 2013. The court also rejected a 'B' report filed by the Lokayukta police recommending the closure of the case.

A Right To Information (RTI) activist Ramakrishna had filed a complaint against Somanna before the Lokayukta in 2013. He had shared documents pointing to Somanna's wealth disproportionate to his known sources of income. But Lokayukta officials closed the case by filing the 'B' report.

Taking serious exception to the 'B' report, Ramakrishna had approached the special court and submitted documents to support his claim while seeking further action against the minister. After verifying the facts, the court rejected the 'B' report filed by the Lokayukta police and summoned Somanna to appear before the court in person on April 16.

Somanna faces a special criminal case for offences punishable under Sections 13(1)(b) (d) and (e) R/w Sec.13(2) of the Prevention of Corruption Act, 1988. The summons was issued to the minister along with a copy of the complaint and documents pertaining to his properties before and after he became MLA, and now a minister in the ruling BJP government.

The complainant alleged that Somanna, while submitting the assets and liabilities statement, gave a false report with an ulterior motive. By comparing these documents, it can be seen that the statements were concocted and there were large discrepancies, states Ramakrishna's complaint.

He has submitted that the percentage of disproportionate assets was 204 per cent. The complainant had filed a private complaint before the Lokayukta in 2013, alleging offences punishable under the Prevention of Corruption Act, 1988.

Several attempts by The New Indian Express to contact Somanna over phone went unanswered.

Bible, Quran should also be in textbooks: DKS

KPCC chief D K Shivakumar inaugurates the district committee meet on Tuesday

KARNATAKA Pradesh Congress Committee president D K Shivakumar on Tuesday clarified that the Congress is not opposed to the plan to introduce lessons from the Bhagwad Gita in school curriculum.

"In fact, the Congress was responsible for telecasting the Ramayana and Mahabharat serials across the country when the party was in power at the Centre," he said at a press conference here.

He said to show people the moral of the Ramayana and the Mahabharat, the Congress ensured the telecast of the epics and the entire country was enthralled. "What the BJP government is doing now is nothing but copying the Congress. Let them introduce the Gita in schools. This is a secular country and the Bible and Quran should also be included as the message of all religious texts is the same," he said.

When his attention was drawn on the demand of G-23 to free the Congress from the Gandhi family, Shivakumar said all leaders of the party, except a few, are loyal to the Gandhi family. "If there is no Gandhi family, there is no Congress," he said.

The KPCC president said it is a known fact that AICC chief Sonia Gandhi rejected becoming Prime Minister and instead selected Manmohan Singh for the country's top post twice. "The so-called G-23 leaders enjoyed power though Sonai and Rahul opted not to be part of the government. Where were they at that time?" he questioned. As far as he is concerned, he is grateful to Sonia and Rahul as they stood with him when he was facing a crisis, Shivakumar said.

He also flayed the BJP government for increasing the petrol price immediately after the elections to five States. The people voted for the BJP keeping faith in it, but it betrayed the voters, he said. Shivakumar demanded that the Karnataka government protect people by providing subsidies.

On the opposition to the Mekedatu project by the Tamil Nadu Government, Shivakumar said Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai has claimed in the Assembly that he will meet the Union Water Resources Minister and, if necessary, will take a delegation of all parties to New Delhi to get clearance for the project. The "double engine" government should keep its promise, he said.

Cong membership drive fails to pick up steam

DEVARAJ B HIREHALLI
@ Bengaluru

WITH the deadline for the Congress' digital membership drive ending on March 31, the sluggish pace of enrolment, especially in BJP strongholds like the coastal region, Kodagu and even Shivamogga, has become a matter of grave concern for Congress state chief D K Shivakumar.

So much so that Shivakumar had to give the ongoing Assembly session a miss on Tuesday to personally oversee the enrollment drive in Kalaburagi. Launched with the ambitious target of 50 lakh members, the party is no where close to it with the drive failing to pick up steam.

"Kalaburagi district enrolled 74,000 members, including Chittapur Assembly constituency with 26,000. In my constituency of Kanakapura, 76,000 members were registered while in Iqbal Ansari's Gangavathi, it was 60,000. When a small state like Telangana could register 40 lakh members, we could do not more than 30 lakh. I had expected 4 lakh enrollments from Kalaburagi district. What went wrong?" he wondered.

According to Congress sources, the real figure stands close to 20 lakh enrolment for the entire state. Udupi stood at the bottom of the pile, registering just 5,193 members from five Assembly segments. Dakshina Kannada with 15,327 enrolments from eight Assembly seats and Shivamogga with 15,221 from seven seats also exposed the disinterest among both party functionaries and people to identify with the grand old party. The situation was similar in Kodagu with just 5,957 people registering for membership to the party digitally.

In contrast, Mysuru (74,000), Mandya (68,000) Chikkamagaluru (49,500) and Hassan (45,913) witnessed moderate response. The rest of the districts registered 13-14 lakh enrolments.

"I agree that the response is poor in the coastal region and also in parts of Shivamogga and Kodagu. But the party leaders concerned should motivate those assigned with the job of enrolment as once the people register it is a permanent data for the future course of action," said a senior leader.

GOVT ANNOUNCES POWER SUBSIDY FOR COFFEE ESTATES

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

THE State Government has decided to provide power subsidy to up to 10 HP pump-sets installed in coffee estates.

This was announced by Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai during the zero hour in the Assembly on Tuesday. The request for subsidised power was made by several MLAs from the Malnad areas.

Raising the issue, MLA Appachu Ranjan said though Kodagu district supplies Cauvery water to the state, it has been neglected. "While tobacco and arecanut estates get power subsidy, coffee estates have bee neglected.

Supporting him, Chikkamagaluru MLA C T Ravi said there is an assumption that coffee growers are rich and so can afford power. "In reality, this is not true as many of them are in debt," he noted.

Following the debate, Bommai pointed out that power subsidies extended by the state are increasing every year, adding up to Rs 12,000 crore to Rs 14,000 crore. "However, we understand the problems of coffee growers and following a discussion with the Power Minister and others, the state will grant subsidised power to up to 10 HP pump-sets installed in coffee estates. However, the terms and conditions will be released to prevent misuse."

CM to write to Union govt to scrap GST on fertilisers, agro products

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Mysuru

CHIEF Minister Basavaraj Bommai on Tuesday assured farmer leaders that he would look into the demand for exempting fertilisers, pesticides, drip irrigation material and agro products from the GST net. Bommai said he would write to the Centre and press for GST exemption in the interest of the farming community.

He was interacting with farmer leaders after receiving a memorandum from prominent farmer organisations at the round table meet. The farmers said the Union government, that gives subsidy on one hand, is squeezing them by imposing GST on agro products and fertilisers.

When the farmers briefed him on life insurance cover for 36 lakh farmers in Telangana, who pay Rs 2,600 premium per annum that fetches Rs 5 lakh monetary benefit in case of untimely death, Bommai said he would seek a report on the Telangana project, and look into their plea.

Karnataka Sugarcane Growers' Association president Kurbur Shanthakumar said the delegation had pressed for MSP of all agriculture produce, and told him that farmers had been let down as their produce was not purchased at the MSP announced. The government, that had announced it would open ragi procurement centres, and assured it would buy 100 kilos for Rs 3,200 from each farmer, has purchased less than 10 per cent of the ragi produce. This has compelled farmers to sell ragi at throwaway prices to traders and commission agents in villages and nearby towns, Shanthakumar said.

The round table conference, that discussed problems of cane growers and factories denying Fair Remunerative Price to farmers, urged the Chief Minister to prevail on factories to ensure justice.

Shanthakumar said the cost of cultivation has shot up with fertilisers like potash, that was available at Rs 900 a bag and is now sold at Rs 1,950 per bag. The crash in prices of horticulture crops has added to the agony of the farming community, which is yet to recover from the huge losses suffered during the Covid lockdown.

IN THE HOUSE

Developed land to be given to farmers

The Karnataka Industrial Areas Development Board (KIADB) has decided to allot 10,781 sqft of land to beneficiaries in each acre developed by the Board if the farmers prefer not to go for cash compensation for the acquired land. Replying to Congress MLC Saleem Ahmed's query, Large and Medium Industries Minister Murugesh R Nirani said the Board has decided to allot an increased portion of land to the owners.

DCs to review work of prosecutors

Law and Parliamentary Affairs Minister J C Madhuswamy said he has directed the deputy commissioners to submit quarterly reports on the performance of government advocates. Following a discussion on appointing of advocates to fight civil dispute cases in the BBMP and BDA raised by government chief whip Y A Narayanaswamy in the council on Tuesday, the minister said the performance of government advocates is being reviewed seriously.

Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai speaks in the Assembly on Tuesday

THE Legislative Assembly witnessed an uproar on Tuesday with the Congress and BJP members trading barbs at each other over alleged attempts by the ruling party to bring changes in the Constitution. After Congress members said they have safeguarded the Constitution since independence, ensuring that backward communities get their due benefit, BJP members took potshots at them.

When Prasad Abbayya of the Congress said "manuvadis" (followers of Manu) have continued to deny rights of women, dalits and backward classes, P Rajiv of the BJP countered that it was the saffron party which gave respect to the father of the Constitution Dr B R Ambedkar.

Abbayya also referred to the statement by a BJP leader that the party was here to change the Constitution.

"An individual's statement about bringing changes to the Constitution does not reflect the party's stand at all," Rajiv said, indirectly referring to a former Union minister who reportedly stated that the BJP will bring changes to the constitution.

In response to this, Congress leader Priyank Kharge questioned why Prime Minister Narendra Modi or the BJP national president did not react to the former Union minister's statement or take any action against him.

Govt to develop minority community colonies

The State Government will develop colonies that have large populations of minority communities, Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai told the Assembly on Tuesday. "We are planning to take it up through the Karnataka Slum Board. We will conduct a survey to identify such colonies and pockets in all town municipalities and urban local bodies, and provide all basic amenities," he said. "Our first priority will be areas where there are more people from minority communities," he said.

TN wants to keep Cauvery issue alive: Madhuswamy

"WE will discuss it with legal experts and pass the resolution on Wednesday in both Houses. We are committed to implementing the project. We do not need other state's permission to provide drinking water to Bengaluru," Bommai added.

Earlier, he said the Tamil Nadu resolution has no value as it is not in accordance with law. "It is just a political trick. There have been many such resolutions," he added.

In the Assembly, Law Minister JC Madhuswamy said that though the Cauvery final order came a few years ago, the Tamil Nadu government wants to keep the issue alive. "It should not see our silence as a weakness. We are going to give them a befitting reply. Mekedatu is not an irrigation project and we are not using TN's share of water," he added.

Raising the issue during zero hour, members from all parties condemned the Tamil Nadu move. Siddaramaiah said that as per the tribunal order, Karnataka is releasing 177.25 tmcft of Cauvery water during normal years. "We are using surplus water that too for drinking purposes and generating power. In the last seven years, Karnataka has released 582 tmcft of excess water to Tamil Nadu. We should also put pressure on the Union government to give the environment clearance to the Mekedatu project," he added.

Yediyurappa said Karnataka is not at the mercy of Tamil Nadu to construct the project. "By passing such a resolution, Tamil Nadu is trying to snatch our rights and this is not for the first time they are doing it. Bommai has already conveyed a message to Union Jalshakti Minister Gajendra Singh Shekhawat about Mekedatu. If needed, he will also meet Prime Minister Narendra Modi," he added. Former chief minister and JDS leader HD Kumaraswamy too condemned the TN resolution.

CMC office empties out as babus, workers watch 'The Kashmir Files'

Mutt heads watch movie

TUMAKURU: A group of religious heads from the Veerashaiva-Lingayat community, including Siddaganga Mutt head Sri Siddalinga Swamiji, watched the movie 'The Kashmir Files' at a theatre here on Tuesday afternoon. "We Indians should strive to prevent a repeat of such inhuman incidents and the movie portrays such as message," said Hiremath head Sri Shivananda Shivacharya. He observed that the movie is not against any religion and gave a call to Muslims to join hands with their countrymen to check violence and terrorism. ENS

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Chikkamagaluru

PEOPLE visiting the Chikkamagaluru City Municipal Council on Monday were in for a rude shock as they found that the entire premises were deserted. The reason was that all the top officials — CMC president Varasiddhi Venugopal, vice-president Umadevi, commissioner B C Basavaraj — working staff and civic workers had gone to view 'The Kashmir Files' during duty hours.

This did not go down well with the Congress. The District Congress Committee (DCC), led by its president Dr K P Anshumanth, staged a protest before the municipal office accusing that BJP-ruled municipality of forgetting its duty and causing a lot of inconvenience to the citizens.

The protesters shouted slogans such as 'Municipality is absconding, staff is missing' and had a verbal duel with municipal commissioner B C Basavaraj, who arrived on the scene after hearing the news.

Anshumanth said watching the movie during work hours showed the irresponsibility of the CMC. He criticised the staff for signing in the movement register and then skipping work. Meanwhile, speaking to reporters after watching the movie, the CMC president hailed the film and said it was based on "factual events" in Jammu and Kashmir. He praised Prime Minister Narendra Modi for repealing Article 370, which, he said, facilitated the screening of the movie.

Govt to take action over fake caste certificates

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

LAW and Parliamentary Affairs Minister J C Madhuswamy on Tuesday clarified that the State Government will not take lightly cases of upper caste people availing Scheduled Caste benefits with fake caste certificates.

"The government will not tolerate such incidents and a clear-cut circular has been issued in this regard. I will instruct the Social Welfare Department secretary concerned to look into the matter. Disciplinary action will be initiated against the guilty, including officials responsible for issuing fake certificates," he told the Assembly.

BJP MLAs P Rajiv, M P Kumaraswamy and N Mahesh, and JD(S)'s Dr K Annadani raised the issue and expressed concern that no one has been punished till date for claiming SC benefits through fake caste certificates.

Madhuswamy replied that in 1997, the Centre had included 'beda jangama' or 'budga jangama' in the SC list of 101 castes, against serial number 19. But there were instances of some people availing fake certificate despite not being from that caste.

Sand mining from Godavari river stopped

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Vijayawada

WORKS pertaining to Polavaram project headworks were interrupted on Tuesday as tippers meant to excavate sand from Godavari river and transport the same to Polavaram project site for utilization for construction works were stopped by Jaypee Group, which was awarded a contract of sand mining across the state.

More than 200 tippers belong to MEIL, executing the works were stopped at the river bank by Jaypee representatives stating that sand mining is their responsibility and others can not mine the same. They further said permission from the mining department is required.

Though they were explained that sand for the Polavaram project works can be excavated by the executing company and all the needed permissions are there, Jaypee people did not allow the tippers. On March 19, 2022, Principal Secretary (Water Resources) Shashi Bushan Kumar issued orders directing the East Godavari district collector that the sand reaches within the project area (upto 10 ms downstream) of spillway of Polavaram Irrigation Project should not be permitted for sand mining by private agencies and also to issue permission to ply vehicles of MEIL for sand transportation.

ALARMING FIGURES

With 296 cases, K'taka tops in child marriages

Minister cites poverty, illiteracy as reasons

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

KARNATAKA has witnessed an alarming increase in the number of child marriage cases in the year 2020-21. Replying to a question by deputy leader of opposition in the council K Govindaraju, Women and Child Development Minister Halappa Achar informed the council that 296 child marriages were reported in the state in 2020-21. The figures jumped by 140 cases, compared to 156 in 2019-20, while 119 cases were reported in 2018-19.

As per the National Crime Records Bureau (NCRB), Karnataka topped the list of Indian states in child marriages in 2020 by reporting 184 cases, the minister added. Listing the reasons for the increase in numbers, the minister cited poverty, illiteracy, superstition, lack of knowledge about laws related to child marriage, negligence towards educating girl children, and traditional wishes of elders. Achar said the department was taking several measures to eradicate the evil practice.

Vasudeva Sharma NV, Executive Director of Child Rights Trust, appreciated the government releasing the figures, but posed his concerns, saying the numbers provided are just the tip of the iceberg. "I am not alarmed by the figures given by the government as these are just the registered cases. In reality, the numbers will be much more," he said.

He said that recording the correct age of pregnant girls at Anganwadi centres is an effective way to know the quantum of child marriages. "The government issues Thayi cards to pregnant girls, but the age of the girls is not mentioned correctly in most of the cards. If the actual age is recorded by Anganwadi workers, a more realistic number of child marriage cases can be arrived at," Sharma added. He also mentioned that keeping a tab on the number of girls dropping out of high schools and PU colleges may also help stop child marriages.

Five students die in bus-car collision

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Hassan

FIVE students were killed on the spot in a head-on collision between a KSRTC bus and an Alto car near Kalkere village on Hassan-Belur Road on Tuesday. The deceased have been identified as Riyaz, Fayaz Ahmed, Akmal Khan, Mohamed Kaif (18) and Suhil (17) from Bantenahalli, JP Nagar and Bitruvalli villages of the same taluk.

The accident occurred when Riyaz, who was driving the vehicle, rammed into the KSRTC bus while overtaking another vehicle. The incident occurred when they were on the way to Hassan after writing the Hindi exam.

The bus was going to Chikmagalur from Bengaluru. The car was completely destroyed due to the impact of the accident. The police took one-and-half-hours to separate the bodies from the wreckage.

The vehicular traffic was disrupted for almost one hour due to the accident. According to the police, the overspeeding of the car was said to be the reason for the accident. Senior police officers visited the spot. Belur police have registered a case against the bus driver.

Coast Guard rescues 6 SL migrants

HIT by economic crisis, six Sri Lankan nationals, including three children, fled the island nation and sought refuge in India on Tuesday, in what could possibly be the beginning of a new wave of refugee influx into Tamil Nadu from the island nation. The group stranded on a sandbar off Dhanushkodi was rescued by Indian Coast Guard personnel early on Tuesday.

The rescued Tamils were identified as Gajendran (24), wife Mary Clarin (23), their four-month-old child Nisanth, and Tiori (28) and her two children Esthar (9) and Moses (6). They were all residents of Jaffna and Kokupadaiyan.

According to Tiori, gas cylinder price has increased from Sri Lankan Rs.1,900 to Rs.4,000 and price of rice is up from Rs.130 to Rs. 230 per kg. A single egg costs Rs.35. Prices of all the commodities have hit the roof in the island nation.

"We could not find any jobs, and our wages, too, were falling. As the economic hardship was too much to bear, we decided to flee to India," Gajendran, a former inmate of a refugee camp in Erode who had returned to Sri Lanka just a year ago, told reporters after the coast guard interrogated them at Mandapam.

An Indian Coast Guard team rescued the Lankan Tamils from fourth island, Rameshwaram, after it got information from Q Branch police. ICGS, Mandapam, launched a hovercraft and at 10.30am they located them. The team left Peshalai in Sri Lanka at 22.30pm on Monday on a fishing boat and landed on the fourth island at 01.30 am on Tuesday.

PES University hosts Nobel Prize lectures

ENS @Bengaluru

THE Karnataka Association for Advancement of Science (KAAS) and PES University jointly organised the Nobel Prize commemorative lectures, based on those areas which won the prizes for Chemistry and Physics in 2021.

Dr Shantanu Mukharjee delivered a lecture on 'Asymmetric Catalysis with Small Organic Molecules' which gave an insight on the Noble Prize-winning work of Prof Benjamin List of Germany and Prof David MacMillan of USA. He outlined the principles of Organocatalysis and described the various factors which make their contributions so important.

Appreciating the research fraternity at the Indian Institute of Science, PES University Chancellor Dr M R Doreswamy stressed the need for implementing the National Education Policy which provides the opportunity for students to study subjects across disciplines, which leads to the overall development of their skills.

DILEEP TO BE QUESTIONED ON MONDAY

Kochi: The special investigation team conducting further investigation in the actor abduction and assault case on Tuesday issued notice to Dileep to appear for interrogation on Monday. Though Dileep was summoned for questioning on Thursday, the actor requested to postpone it to Monday due to personal reasons. He has been asked to appear at the Crime Branch office in Kochi. April 14 is the deadline set by the Kerala High Court for completion of further investigation in the case.

SilverLine: BJP reminds LDF govt of Sabarimala

T'PURAM : The LDF government will be forced to backtrack from the SilverLine project as it did in the case of the Sabarimala women's entry issue, BJP state president K Surendran has said. Criticising Chief Minister Pinarayi Vijayan for using threatening language against the anti-SilverLine protesters, the BJP leader told reporters here on Tuesday that the government was trying to divide the agitators on the lines of caste and religion. The BJP leader said the protest was a people's movement.

LOWER TAXES WILL HELP SOFTEN OIL PRICE BLOWS

It was expected any day, and it has come. Petrol and diesel prices have been increased between ₹0.80 and ₹1 across the country while LPG cooking gas has been hiked by about ₹50 a cylinder. More hikes are in the pipeline as oil companies scurry to match retail prices with the shooting costs of crude oil. The latter has risen almost 45% since the Ukraine war started. The Union government had held the hand of the oil companies to buy goodwill before the Assembly elections in February and March. The polls are now over, and the gloves are off. Bulk diesel prices have in fact been raised by as much as ₹25-28 a litre above pump prices. This is likely to fuel inflation as big consumers such as the Railways and factories pass on the hit to small consumers.

We are also seeing raw material prices of a range of commodities like iron, steel and glass shooting up relentlessly. Construction companies and realtors have warned that they will stop purchasing raw material and pause construction as input costs are have gone through the roof. Building industry associations like CREDAI warn that the Ukraine war has become an easy excuse for hoarding and cartelisation by manufacturers and traders to push up prices. The government should investigate these charges and protect consumers.

Meanwhile, oil industry watchers warn that for every $1 rise in crude prices, petrol and diesel prices are jacked up by ₹0.50 a litre. This means fuel prices may go up by ₹20 per litre in the coming days to match the crude backlog. These are ominous clouds for the poor man's purse and the government will have to take proactive measures to soften the blows. The total incidence of central taxes and local VAT on retail petrol prices is currently around 50% and that on diesel 40%. This is after reduction in excise duty and cuts on local sales tax or VAT by state governments. While the government has little hold over international crude prices, a recalibration of the tax regime on fuel could provide some respite.

TIME FOR BOOSTER AS COVID NOT OVER YET

As China battles its fiercest Covid wave since 2020, which is propelled by the Omicron variant, and parts of Europe report an uptick in the daily caseload, India must make up its mind about administration of booster doses for all above 18 years of age. The country recorded just 1,518 Covid cases in the last 24 hours with the daily positivity rate at 0.28%. Every sector—social and economic—is open and things have looked the most normal since the virus from Wuhan swept across the globe like wildfire two years ago. Even Assembly elections across five states could be conducted with minimum restrictions without any surge in the number of daily cases. The Government of India, on its part, has done well to have gone ahead with vaccination among the 12–17 age group, whereas booster dose coverage for health and frontline workers as well as senior citizens has progressed at a rapid pace. So far, India has administered more than 181.7 crore jabs across the age groups and precaution doses have been given to over two crore individuals. It's heartening to say the least but this is not the time to breathe easy.

Covid may appear to have entered its endemic stage but not all experts agree. The recombinant virus, called the Deltacron, has surfaced in several states and epidemiologists are watching with abundant caution. As the Centre mulls allowing a precaution dose for all adults, many countries including the US are strongly debating the administration of a second booster. Israel was the first to allow its citizens to go in for such a dose though clinical analysis shows that a second booster—effectively the fourth jab—does not really send the protection levels soaring beyond the third dose levels, while it is advised for the elderly who are really vulnerable. India started its vaccination way back in January last year and by now, the immunity levels must have waned significantly among a large population. Though the second and third waves must have provided natural immunity, the Covid virus has shown that it is not one to stop mutating so quickly. The pandemic is not over yet and the Centre must not lose time because the economy cannot afford to take any more hits from the health crisis.

The apologists for jihadis are raising various objections to the release of the movie. Each of these contentions need to be addressed in order to put the record straight

WITH KASHMIR FILM, THE PSEUDO-SECULAR DAM HAS NOW BURST

A SURYA PRAKASH
Former chairman of Prasar Bharati and Scholar, Democracy Studies

SOUMYADIP SINHA

Vivek Ranjan Agnihotri's The Kashmir Files has finally blasted the well-constructed wall of silence and deceit built by the pseudo-secular brigade to shut out the truth about the horrific and shameful pogrom unleashed on the Hindu minority by Islamic jihadists in the Kashmir Valley in 1990, leading to the uprooting of lakhs of Indian citizens from their karmabhoomi and punyabhoomi.

It seems as if a dam has burst. All the pent-up anger and disgust over the genocide of Kashmiri Pandits, which remained bottled up for 32 years, is now spilling out onto television channels where a raging national debate is on over the targeted assault on the Hindu minority in the Kashmir Valley.

The slogan of the jihadists and militants was simple and straight—Raliv, Galiv ya Chaliv (Convert, Leave or Die). This was repeatedly blared from mosques in the Valley and was the favourite slogan of the mobs that roamed the streets of Srinagar and other towns, burning down Hindu homes in early 1990.

The dreadful events of that time have been recounted by those Kashmiri Pandits who miraculously survived the horror. They had to be smuggled out to makeshift camps in Jammu and Delhi and made to live on doles of a not-so-concerned government. The Kashmir Files is based on the true stories of those who lived to tell their tale.

The bloody attacks on Hindus began in the Valley in the second half of the 1980s when Rajiv Gandhi was prime minister. When the bloodthirsty Islamic terrorists marched on the streets of Srinagar and mercilessly hacked members of the minority to death, the darling of the pseudo-secular brigade—Farooq Abdullah—was the chief minister. Millions of Indians must have heard Farooq and his son Omar Abdullah pretending to be liberals and lecturing the Indian majority on the virtues of secularism. After The Kashmir Files, for the sake of democratic and secular India, the duo must be barred from offering lip service to "secularism" ever again.

The apologists for these jihadis are raising various objections to the release of the movie. Among their contentions are that this film will open old wounds; that it will exacerbate communal tensions; that Kashmiri Muslims were never part of this conspiracy to wipe out the entire Hindu minority from the Valley; that there could have been some "balance" in the screenplay; and finally, why now?

But each of these contentions need to be addressed, in order to put the record straight.

It will open old wounds: This is absolutely false, since the wounds have never healed. Nor has the world done anything worthwhile to acknowledge the trauma of Kashmiri Pandits and ensure their return to their homes. So the wounds are not 'old'. They are still raw and await the healing touch from humanity.

It will exacerbate communal tensions: This cannot be a valid reason to hide the truth about the exodus of lakhs of citizens of the country from their homeland. This nation also saw a pogrom against the Sikhs in 1984 and it is discussed and debated even to this day. No country can stand up and be counted among the comity of nations if it were to run away from the truth. It must take it head-on.

> Among their contentions are that the film will open old wounds. This is absolutely false, since the wounds have never healed. Nor has the world done anything worthwhile to acknowledge the trauma of Kashmiri Pandits and ensure their return to their homes

Kashmiri Muslims were never part of the conspiracy to get rid of the Hindus: This is absolutely untrue. The mobs that terrorised the Hindus in the 1990s shouting Raliv, Galiv ya Chaliv were local Muslim youth.

There could have been some balance: Steven Spielberg's epic movie Schindler's List depicted some of the concentration camps in which six million Jews were butchered. No sane person who saw the movie ever said "there could have been some balance" vis-a-vis the depiction of the Nazis.

Why now?: To this the answer should be, why not? Also, this warrants a counter question. Why was this story not told earlier? Why did it take us so long to come face to face with the truth about the ethnic-cleansing in the Valley in 1990?

Schindler's List was released in 1993, almost half a century after the end of World War II. Nobody ever asked, why now? It won seven Academy Awards and the Library of Congress declared the movie as "culturally, historically and aesthetically significant".

Much of the blame for hiding the truth about the systematic uprooting of the Hindu minority from the Kashmir Valley must go to a small bunch of pseudo-secularists in the country—possibly a few hundred—spread across politics, academia, media and the bureaucracy, who have controlled the narrative on all the key issues in this country.

Those belonging to this school have never acknowledged the fact that the Hindu majority willed that India be a secular, democratic nation at the time of Independence while many Muslims wanted an Islamic state. Far from acknowledging the majority's commitment to liberal values, members of this school have spent the last seven decades demonising the Hindus. That is why the real story about Kashmiri Pandits was never told because this did not fit into their false narrative.

With the release of The Kashmir Files, one can say that the dam has burst. The movie is a blockbuster because the people want to know the truth.

Finally, we need to ask ourselves: If this was the plight of the Hindu minority in the only Muslim majority state in the country at that time, how safe is secularism in India?

UKRAINE INVASION: SANCTIONS ARE NOT FOREVER

KANDASWAMI SUBRAMANIAN
Served in the Ministry of Finance, GOI, and retired as Joint Secretary

The sanctions imposed on Russia by the US for its illegal invasion of Ukraine are not of the same class as those adopted hitherto. They are starkly different in nature and scope even from those imposed earlier on Russia in 2014 when it occupied Crimea. This time around, they are joined by other European allies. Unlike in the past, the sanctions are total or comprehensive and the intention is to isolate Russia from the global economy.

The Wall Street Journal published a piece titled "The West's barrage of sanctions severs Russia from much of the world" (February 28). Another article summarised the sanctions thus: ban from SWIFT, banking restrictions and export controls. Putin has described the actions as "economic warfare." Many analysts agree with the charge.

When initial reports emerged about Russia's exclusion from SWIFT, which was not normal or legal, there were debates among experts on alternatives. The reference was to China's CIPS and the emerging digital fintech systems that are considered to be superior to SWIFT in terms of cost and efficiency, though it was admitted that they would take time to become operational. These debates became secondary with the barrage of sanctions unveiled in the following weeks.

The US is habituated to sanctions and has been using (or abusing) its global dominance and the extraordinary role played by the American dollar as a reserve currency. To date, more than 20 countries are subject to sanctions. Most are limited in scope and seek to promote the economic interests of the US or US-owned MNCs. Several studies have shown that "the US keeps turning to sanctions despite their mixed record" (NPR, February 24). In more recent years, especially under Donald Trump, they were based on the whims and fancies of the President and also turned into foreign policy tools. Sanctions against Cuba, Iran and North Korea have failed to achieve the objectives even after long years when those countries had to undergo hardship and face shortages of medicine, food, etc.

Even after such a frustrating record of sanctions, why did Biden decide to impose a ferocious package on Russia? One may give him the benefit of doubt and argue that, perhaps, his advisers learnt from experience and were determined to make the sanctions this time total and as fierce as possible to punish an aggressor. However, Global Times quoted a Chinese academic as saying, "There's a possibility that Joe Biden is showing his hardcore posturing on global issues to American voters, in order to rescue his falling support rate." (March 14)

Whatever the official objectives behind these sanctions, if we study their impact not only on Russia but also on others, it is ominous. Unwittingly, it destroys a global order that was evolved during recent decades, paradoxically, under US leadership, pressure, persuasion and guile. The sanctions will create a bipolar Cold War scenario with no clarity on which country will be on which side.

The earlier global order, which was called "rules-based", offered an opportunity to many counties even with all its asymmetries and infirmities. Globalisation had become the mantra for many nations. The sanctions will result in reversal of the process by severing the links and structures regardless of political allegiance. It may Balkanise trading groups.

> Whatever the objectives behind these sanctions against Russia, they will destroy a global order that was evolved during recent decades, paradoxically, under US leadership. The earlier global order, which was called 'rules-based', offered an opportunity to many counties even with all its asymmetries and infirmities. The sanctions will result in reversal of the process regardless of political allegiance

A part of the sanctions concerns restrictions on banks. The Office of Foreign Asset Control list (OFAC) has stopped Russia's central banks, the country's finance ministry and the national wealth fund from accessing the dollar. American banks are advised against any dealing with Russian banks. What is extraordinary is that Russian assets valued at $630 billion are frozen. That means Russia cannot use them until Uncle Sam permits it. Many analysts have questioned the wisdom of this decision. Dollar became a "safe haven" because of its safety, liquidity and value. The US had an unsullied record of holding them. Jim O'Neill, formerly of Goldman Sachs, wonders "whether this episode set the stage for the kind of monetary and financial fragmentation that some analysts long anticipated?" (Project Syndicate, March 2). Some analysts take the view that it could shake the faith in the dollar and lead to the rise of currency arrangements linked to yuan, rupee or others. They foresee the decline of dollar dominance.

Cross-border currency and foreign transactions are so interconnected that it is not practicable to unravel the source or nationality. They are at the bottom of loans, mortgages or other arrangements. Though the initial impact of sanctions is modest, the full outcome is yet to emerge since we do not have a full idea of interlinked contracts. As Gillian Tett from the Financial Times put it, "Financial war, like the real variety, creates aftershocks and collateral damage. It would be naive to think this will hit Russians only." (War in Ukraine threatens global financial system, March 3.)

There are serious implications such as the disruption of supply chains impacting areas like energy, food supplies, defence and trade. They will require a separate column. The immediate problem is to settle a bilateral arrangement. As explained by the MEA spokesperson Arindam Bagchi, there is lack of clarity and the government is awaiting details of unilateral sanctions. He ducked the question of the restoration of the older rupee-rouble model.

We have to face major disruptions or even chaos in many areas like trade, finance, etc. as a result of these unilateral US sanctions that hurt others. The only hope is that with the cessation of the war in Ukraine, the US administration will moderate them. These sanctions are not forever.

Stuck in the middle

India is currently in an unenviable position and is caught between two world powers. It cannot afford to lose its all-weather friend, Russia, yet cannot annoy the all-powerful, though fair-weather friend, the US. Given the complicated geopolitical situation, it may be best for India to continue its neutral stand irrespective of mounting pressure.

DV G Sankararao, Vizianagaram

Neutral foreign policy good

Prime Minister Narendra Modi must be appreciated for taking a firm stand in the UN about being non-aligned or neutral in the Ukraine-Russia crisis by abstaining from voting. Indian foreign policy is bringing dividends and the nation is getting crude oil from Russia at a much lower price.

Why deny only Kerala?

High-speed rail projects in India, like that connecting Mumbai and Ahmedabad, have met with protests over land acquisition during their construction. Why, then, should Kerala alone be denied the high-speed rail while other states are able to successfully go ahead with such projects?

Fixation with SilverLine

The fixation of Kerala CM Pinarayi Vijayan with the SilverLine project, despite widespread protests in different regions, is truly astounding. He is repeatedly reiterating the resolve of the LDF to implement the project whatever the cost, which is baffling. One wonders if this will prove to be the Nandigram of Kerala for the LDF.

K V Raghuram, Wayanad

K'taka going against SC?

The Tamil Nadu Assembly's resolution to urge the Centre not to give its nod to Karnataka for constructing the Mekedatu dam is timely. Not heeding the final award of the Cauvery tribunal in 2017 and the Supreme Court's verdict in 2018, Karnataka seems to have firmed up its decision to build the dam. It also seems the Centre is maintaining silence on the issue to support the BJP government in Karnataka. Instead of taking such a jaundiced view, the Centre must ask the state to honour the apex court order.

Rajamani Chelladurai, Tirunelveli

Honour people's verdict

The BJP retained its former chief ministers in the four states where it won in the recent polls. Though the decision makes sense in three of the states as the CMs won the seat they had contested from, the same cannot be said about Uttarakhand CM Pushkar Singh Dhami, who lost the election. This means though the people wanted the BJP to continue in governance, they did not want the same CM. Instead of making him the head again and forcing a newly elected legislator to resign to make Dhami an MLA within six months, the BJP should have chosen one of the elected MLAs as the CM. This would have been in keeping with the people's mandate.

KR Jayaprakash Rao, Mysuru

Sustainability of Congress

This is with reference to Go! (Mar 20). The article is one of the best and most comprehensive political analyses I have ever come across. The author talks about the why and how of the sustainability of the Congress vis-a-vis the morbid Nehru-Gandhi dynasty. The family has proved to be an undetachable millstone around the neck of the GOP.

Delhi continues to be the most polluted capital

India's air quality remains poor, 63 of the 100 worst affected cities from the country

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ New Delhi

SIXTY-THREE of the world's 100 most polluted cities are in India, according to the World Air Quality Report 2021, prepared by Swiss organisation IQAir, released on Tuesday. Delhi remains the most polluted capital city in the world for the fourth consecutive year.

The report said Delhi tops the list of capitals with the highest average annual PM2.5 concentration. It is followed by Dhaka (Bangladesh), N'Djamena (Chad), Dushanbe (Tajikistan) and Muscat (Oman). None of the cities in India meet the World Health Organization (WHO) air quality guideline of 5 micrograms per cubic metre, the report said.

"India's annual PM2.5 averages have returned to pre-quarantine concentrations as measured in 2019," the report said, adding that in 2021, 48% of Indian cities exceeded 50µg/m3, or more than 10 times the WHO guideline. The report is based on PM2.5 data from 6,475 cities in 117 countries worldwide.

Sixty-three Indian cities dominated the list of 100 most polluted cities. Half of them are in Haryana and Uttar Pradesh. Bhiwadi in Rajasthan's Alwar is the most polluted regional city, with an average PM2.5 concentration of 106.2 micrograms per cubic metre, followed by Uttar Pradesh's Ghaziabad.

Central and South Asia have some of the worst air quality and were home to 46 of the world's 50 most polluted cities in 2021.

> Air pollution causes & aggravates many diseases. The estimated daily economic cost of air pollution has been figured at $8 billion or 3-4% of the gross world product
>
> IQAir report

The report also noted that air quality in China continued to improve in 2021. Capital Beijing continued a five-year trend of improved air quality, which was driven by emission control and reduction of coal power plant activity and other high-emission industries.

The report mentioned that the cleanest air measured in India is in Ariyalur, Tamil Nadu, but even that is thrice the WHO's safe levels. "Air pollution is now considered the world's largest environmental health threat, accounting for seven million deaths around the world every year," it said.

Jailed Lalu Prasad shifted to AIIMS Delhi

Ranchi: Incarcerated Rashtriya Janata Dal supremo Lalu Prasad Yadav's health condition has deteriorated and he has been shifted to AIIMS, New Delhi, officials said on Tuesday. A medical board of the Rajendra Institute of Medical Sciences referred him to AIIMS. "RJD chief Lalu Prasad has been taken to Delhi in an air ambulance," Ranchi's Birsa Munda Airport Director Vinod Sharma said. told PTI. Dr Vidyapati, who heads a seven-member team of doctors formed by RIMS to treat Prasad, earlier said that the board recommends he be shifted.

INDIA SOMEWHAT SHAKY ON RUSSIA STAND: BIDEN

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ New Delhi

US President Joe Biden has said that among the Quad group of nations, India is "somewhat shaky" in acting against Russia over its invasion of Ukraine.

"The Quad is, with the possible exception of India being somewhat shaky on some of this, but Japan has been extremely strong, so is Australia, in terms of dealing with Putin's aggression," Biden said during a roundtable of CEOs.

India has not imposed sanctions on Russia, from where it sources military equipment. India has urged an end to the violence in Ukraine but not condemned Russia.

"In response to Putin's aggression, we have presented a united front throughout the NATO and in the Pacific," Biden said.

After a virtual summit between the Australian and Indian Prime Ministers on Monday, India's foreign ministry had said Australia understood India's position on Ukraine, which "reflected our own situation, our own considerations".

Even though India has grown close to the US in recent years, it depends on Russia for supply of arms and ammunition amidst a border stand-off with China and the tension with Pakistan.

Maurya may remain Deputy CM despite defeat

NAMITA BAJPAI @Lucknow

WITH the swearing-in ceremony of Uttar Pradesh's Chief Minister-designate Yogi Adityanath and his cabinet just two days away, the corridors of power are abuzz with the prospects of Keshav Prasad Maurya. A prominent OBC face of UP BJP, he was the Deputy CM in the previous cabinet. Whether he will be retained after losing from his own constituency of Sirathu, is the question doing the rounds.

If sources are to be believed, Maurya will in all probability be retained as Deputy CM. State BJP chief Swatantra Deo Singh is also likely to get a prominent position in the new council of ministers. However, the final seal of approval has to come from Union Home Minister Amit Shah. BJP's observer for the state is expected here on Thursday, with co-observer Raghubar Das. The swearing-in ceremony takes place on Friday.

It may be recalled that Maurya had played a crucial role in leading BJP to a massive victory with 312 seats in 2017. He is also credited for winning over a number of non-Yadav backward castes, which helped the saffron brigade win in 2017 as well as 2022.

The move to induct Swatantra Deo into the government is seen as a bid to consolidate the party's non-Yadav OBC clout further, as they have been loyal to the party since 2014. In 2022, around 64% non-Yadav OBC voted in favour of BJP, up from 59.8% in 2017. This will be crucial for BJP to accomplish Mission 2024, when Narendra Modi seeks a third consecutive term as the Prime Minister.

There could be room for a third deputy CM as well, to give representation to an SC face. Former Uttarakhand Governor Baby Rani Maurya, who quit the post to join mainstream politics ahead of this Assembly election, is likely to be that face. She won from the Agra Rural (SC) seat.

The fate of the other Deputy CM, Dr Dinesh Sharma hangs in balance. Sources claimed there is a chance of him being replaced by another Brahmin face, which will also be decided in the presence of Shah.

If Swatantra Deo gets a cabinet berth, Sharma might be given the state chief's post, said a source. Retention of some key cabinet ministers like Shrikant Sharma, Siddharth Nath Singh and Jai Pratap Singh seems certain. The UP BJP core group is also likely to go into a huddle with Shah and other senior leaders to finalise the shape and size of the Yogi Cabinet 2.0.

ADITYANATH QUITS LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL

Uttar Pradesh CM-designate Yogi Adityanath has tendered his resignation from the state Legislative Council, days after being elected MLA from Gorakhpur Urban. Yogi put in his papers from the Council two days ahead of his swearing-in ceremony, which is likely to take place with much fanfare in Lucknow on March 25.

Adityanath made his Assembly poll debut and defeated nearest rival, Shubhawati Shukla of SP by over 1.20 lakh votes. He was elected to the Uttar Pradesh Legislative Council in 2017 after assuming charge as Chief Minister following BJP's landslide win.

Akhilesh and Khan choose MLA seats over Lok Sabha to focus on UP politics

Akhilesh Yadav tenders resignation as MP to Lok Sabha Speaker Om Birla | PTI

ON a day of major political developments, Samajwadi Party chief Akhilesh Yadav decided to retain his Karhal Assembly seat and quit as MP of Azamgarh. He may become the Leader of Opposition in the UP Assembly. Senior SP leader and MP from Rampur, Azam Khan also decided to resign from his Lok Sabha seat while retaining Rampur Shahar, from where was elected as MLA in the recent polls.

Akhilesh, 48, who contested his first Assembly polls from his stronghold of Karhal in Mainpuri district and defeated Union minister SP Singh Baghel of BJP by over 60,000 votes, decided to retain his seat to remain more active in state politics.

On Tuesday afternoon, flanked by his uncle and SP's Rajya Sabha MP Ram Gopal Yadav, Akhilesh met Lok Sabha Speaker Om Birla in Parliament and submitted his resignation.

Akhilesh was elected to the Lok Sabha from Azamgarh, considered to be the bastion of his father and SP patriarch Mulayam Singh Yadav, in 2019. Before him, Mulayam had contested from both Azamgarh and Mainpuri in 2014. After winning both seats, he left Mainpuri and retain Azamgarh. In 2019, when SP and BSP had fought together, Mulayam contested from Mainpuri and pitched Akhilesh from Azamgarh.

As per SP sources, Akhilesh decided to remain an MLA after much consultation with his supporters in Karhal and Azamagarh. The SP chief had visited Azamgarh to meet party MLAs on Monday.

Party sources claimed that the SP chief took the step after elaborate talks with senior leaders and close family members who had assembled in Safai, his native village, for Holi celebrations. Sources also said that both Mulayam and his cousin Ram Gopal were of the opinion that Akhilesh should focus more on UP politics.

Hunt begins for Dhami seat, 6 MLAs offer to quit

VINEET UPADHYAY @ Dehradun

AFTER Pushkar Singh Dhami's return as the Chief Minister of Uttarakhand on Monday, hunt for his Assembly constituency has begun. Dhami has to become a member of the Assembly within six months to continue as the CM.

In the election, Dhami had lost. "Hunt for the seat has started for the CM-designate. This will be decided after the new cabinet headed by him takes oath," said a state BJP functionary.

Last year in July, Tirath Singh Rawat resigned as CM citing sections 164 and 151 of the Representation of Peoples Act 1951. According to Article 164 (4) of the Act, a minister (including the CM) who for any period of six consecutive months is not a member of the state legislature shall at the expiry of that period cease to be a minister. Section 150 says a vacancy in Assembly makes it mandatory for the Election Commission to call upon the assembly constituency concerned to elect a person for the purpose of filling the vacancy.

Six MLAs have offered to vacate their seats for Dhami. Party sources said he might contest from Didihaat seat of Pithoragarh district. Dhami lost the Khatima seat to Congress' Vinod Kapri despite BJP securing 47 of the 70 seats. The party's central leadership is cautious to avoid any slip-up.

Yogesh Kumar, a Dehradun-based political analyst, said, "The central leadership has reposed faith in Dhami because he was able to pull off an impossible win. Dhami is given another chance. By choosing him, the central leadership has also tightened its grip over the dissenting seniors of the party."

PM for oath ceremony

Dhami's oath-taking ceremony will take place on Wednesday in the presence of Prime Minister Narendra Modi and other central leaders of the party including Amit Shah, Rajnath Singh and JP Nadda.

Bill on way to regularise 35K employees: Mann

HARPREET BAJWA @ Chandigarh

Punjab Chief Minister Bhagwant Mann speaks at the state Assembly in Chandigarh on Tuesday | PTI

PUNJAB Chief Minister Bhagwant Mann has announced that 35,000 Group C and D government employees will be regularised.

Mann said he has directed chief secretary Anirudh Tewari to prepare the draft of a bill for regularising the services of these employees before the next session of the Assembly. "We will approve the draft legislation in the Assembly and regularise the employees engaged through contracts and outsourcing," he said.

"I have held meetings with all officers in the government and asked the chief secretary to stop the practice of contractual employment. Schools have no teachers, but eligible teachers are climbing atop water tanks to protest against the government for not regularising their services. They have to be adjusted according to the vacant posts," said Mann.

He said they want to implement this at the earliest, by getting the bill passed in the Assembly since he does not want these teachers to be protesting on the roads. Before elections, AAP had promised it would regularise these services, if voted to power.

Interestingly, the previous Congress government had also decided to regularise around 36,000 employees working on a contractual, ad hoc or temporary basis. The then government had on November 11 passed the Punjab Protection and Regularisation of Contractual Employees Bill 2021 and sent it to Punjab governor Banwarilal Purohit for approval. But on January 2, the bill was sent back by the governor raising queries.

Meanwhile, the Assembly has adopted a unanimous resolution moved by the Leader of the House and CM Mann to install statues of Shaheed-e-Azam Bhagat Singh, Bharat Ratna Dr Bhim Rao Ambedkar and Sher-e-Punjab Maharaja Ranjit Singh inside the complex of the Assembly.

CM Chouhan to check crime in 'Bulldozer Mama' avatar

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bhopal

AFTER the recent poll success of 'Bulldozer Baba' (Yogi Adityanath) in Uttar Pradesh, Chief Minister of adjoining Madhya Pradesh, Shivraj Singh Chouhan has donned the role of 'Bulldozer Mama'.

While hoardings and posters bearing the pictures of Chouhan as 'Bulldozer Mama' were put up by his supporters, including local BJP MLA Rameshwar Sharma in Bhopal, around 150 kms away in Khamaria village of Raisen district, the Chief Minister himself announced to accelerate his bulldozing plans against goons and mafia.

After meeting the bereaved family of Raju Adivasi who was killed in the Muslims-Tribals clash on March 18, Chouhan said, "All goons and criminals, if you dare to put your hand on the poor and helpless, then I will ensure that your houses are uprooted and flattened with bulldozers."

"When I became the Chief Minister in 2005, I decided that either I will stay in MP or the dacoits will stay in the ravines of Chambal. There are no dacoits in the state now. Now it's the time for the bulldozer to be in action against all goons and anti-social elements who are targeting the helpless," said Chouhan.

Lashing out at the opposition Congress and it's state president Kamal Nath over politicising the recent clash between Muslims and tribals in Khamaria, Chouhan said "We all are sad over your irreparable loss. Some are playing politics over the death of poor by just tweeting over the issue. This not Kamal Nath regime, it's my government."

Defence ministry clears acquisition of equipment worth over ₹8,300 crore

MAYANK SINGH @ New Delhi

THE Defence Acquisition Council (DAC) under the chairmanship of Defence Minister Rajnath Singh has accorded Acceptance of Necessity (AoN) for capital acquisition proposals of armed forces amounting to ₹8,357 crore.

The Ministry of Defence said, "AoNs accorded by DAC include procurement of Night Sight (image intensifier), light vehicles GS 4x4, air defence fire control radar (light) and GSAT 7B satellite." The satellite is for communication requirements of the Army.

Acquisition of these equipment, the MoD said, "will enhance operational preparedness of armed forces by providing better visibility, enhanced mobility, improved communication and increased capability of detecting enemy aircraft."

As an impetus to 'Aatmanirbhar Bharat', these proposals have been approved with focus on indigenous design and development and manufacturing in India. In an initiative to encourage innovation, the DAC also cleared procurement of 14 items worth ₹380.43 crore from the Innovations for Defence Excellence (iDEX) startups/MSMEs.The MoD said these would be procured by the Indian Army, Navy and the IAF.

To fast-track the procurement from start-ups/MSMEs, the DAC approved the new simplified procedure for procurement from iDEX start-ups/MSMEs. The procurement cycle from the AON to contract signing will be around 22 weeks.

The government also decided that all defence modernisation requirements would be indigenously sourced.

Order reserved on plea seeking vaccine data

New Delhi: The Supreme Court on Tuesday reserved order on a petition filed by a former member of National Technical Advisory Group on Immunisation (NTAGI) Jacob Puliyel seeking disclosure of post-vaccination and clinical trial data. The plea also seeks a declaration that making the vaccine mandatory, in any manner whatsoever, even by way of making it a precondition for accessing any benefits or services, is a violation of the rights of citizens.

SC permission for BS-IV diesel vehicle registration

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ New Delhi

THE Supreme Court on Tuesday granted permission for registration of Bharat Stage-VI light and heavy diesel vehicles used for essential and public utility services.

"We are of the considered view that registration can be permitted for BS-VI light and heavy diesel vehicles used for public utility and essential services," said the top court.

The order was passed in an interlocutory plea in the MC Mehta case, after the submission of amicus curiae ADN Rao in the matter before the court that there is no legal bar on registration of BS-VI diesel vehicles, yet the owners of these vehicles are harassed by authorities.

The court said the authorities should not seek court orders for registration purposes of these vehicles. While passing the order, a bench of Justice L Nageswara Rao and Justice BR Gavai also noted that in September 2020, the apex court had made a similar exemption and allowed registration of Bharat Stage-IV vehicles purchased by Delhi Police and municipal corporations of Delhi.

MHA seeks report from Bengal on Birbhum violence

A delegation of BJP MPs from the state meets Amit Shah, alleges that 'political terrorism' under TMC rule putting lives of citizens at risk

Charred remains of the houses torched by the miscreants in Birbhum district | PTI

RAJESH KUMAR THAKUR @ New Delhi

THE Ministry of Home Affairs (MHA) on Tuesday sought a report from the West Bengal government within 72 hours on the incident in which eight people were burnt to death in Birbhum district after a dozen houses were torched.

This came after a delegation of BJP MPs from the state, including Locket Chatterjee, met Union home minister Amit Shah and sought his intervention to bring the spate of violence in Bengal under control.

In a communication, the ministry asked the state government to maintain law and order and ensure security of common people, officials said.

Speaking to the media at the party headquarters later, the BJP demanded an impartial probe by either the CBI or the NIA. Party spokesperson Gaurav Bhatia and Chatterjee accused Trinamool Congress chief and West Bengal Chief Minister Mamata Banerjee of being hell-bent upon turning the state into 'Badalapur' (a land of revenge) and giving a free hand to goons to unleash terror and execute killings like the one in Birbhum.

Chatterjee alleged incidents like these had become commonplace in Bengal in TMC rule. The Bengal BJP has moved to Calcutta High Court over the incident, which appeared to be preplanned, she alleged.

The nine-member delegation that met Shah alleged that the post-poll violence in Bengal continued unabated. "The increasing use of explosives and firearms points towards terrorists being actively used by the TMC to settle political scores and to spread terror among the common citizens," they told the home minister. "We cannot allow the lives of our citizens to be put at risk under increasing political terrorism in the state any more," they said.

Late in the evening, BJP president JP Nadda formed a five-member fact-finding committee to visit and gather evidence from the site and submit a detailed report to the party.

The members of the panel are Brijlal, ex-DGP of UP and now Rajya Sabha MP; Satyapal Singh, former Mumbai Police chief and now RS MP; KC Ramamuthy, MP and former IPS officer from Karnataka; Bharati Ghosh, BJP spokesperson and former IPS officer from Bengal; and Sukanta Mazumdar, MP and Bengal BJP president.

Karan Singh's son quits Cong, cites disconnect

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Srinagar

IN a setback to Congress, senior party leader Vikramaditya Singh, who is son of veteran Congress leader Karan Singh and grandson of last Dogra ruler of J&K Maharaja Hari Singh, on Tuesday resigned from the Congress saying the party is disconnected with the ground realities and unable to reflect sentiments and aspirations of J&K people.

In his resignation letter to Congress president Sonia Gandhi, Singh said, "It is my belief that the Congress is unable to realise and reflect the sentiments and aspirations of people of Jammu and Kashmir." He also tweeted the copy of his resignation letter.

Singh, who had unsuccessfully contested against senior BJP leader and Union minister Jitendra Singh from Udhampur-Doda Lok Sabha seat in 2019 parliamentary elections, said his position on critical issues vis-à-vis Jammu & Kashmir, which reflect national interests, do not align with that of the Congress party.

Singh's resignation comes as a big jolt to the Congress as he was a prominent face of the party in Jammu region.

He is weighing his political options and there is a possibility that he may join the BJP. He was among the first Congress leaders in Jammu to welcome the abrogation of Articles 370 and 35A. His younger brother Ajatshatru Singh is a senior BJP leader in J&K.

Singh had joined the Congress in 2018. In October 2017, he had resigned from PDP and as MLC over differences with the party after the Mehbooba Mufti government did not declare a government holiday on the birthday of his grandfather (the last Maharaja of J&K).

ED attaches properties of Uddhav's kin, Sena hits out

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Mumbai

THE Enforcement Directorate on Tuesday attached assets worth ₹6.45 crore of Maharashtra Chief Minister Uddhav Thackeray's brother-in-law Shreedhar Patankar in a 2017 money-laundering case.

According to ED officials, the seized immovable properties were part of Pushpak Bullion, one of the companies of Pushpak Group. "The attached properties include 11 residential flats in Neelambari project, Thane, belonging to Saibaba Grihanirmiti Pvt Ltd," read the ED note. Patankar, the brother of Thackeray's wife Rashmi, "owns and controls" Shree Saibaba Grihanirmiti Pvt Ltd, it said.

The agency alleged funds siphoned off in the money laundering case being investigated against Pushpak Bullion were "parked" in the real estate projects of Saibaba Grihanirmiti Pvt. Ltd.

Hitting out at the Centre over the ED action, Shiv Sena leader Sanjay Raut said there is pressure on agencies to take actions against MVA leaders to topple the Thackeray government. "There is little hope of justice. The judiciary is also pressurised by the BJP. The laws are misused. During UPA regime, ED took actions in 23 cases while in BJP rule, actions were taken in 2,500 cases," he said.

'Made report on farm laws public to bring out truth'

SUDHIR SURYAWANSHI @ Mumbai

ANIL Ghanwat, farmer leader who put the Supreme Court-appointed expert panel's report on the now-repealed farm laws in public domain, said he wanted people to know the truth and the findings of the report. A majority of farmers were in favour of the three farm laws, he reiterated.

Speaking to this newspaper, Ghanwat says India is an agricultural country, but does not have a tangible agriculture policy. "The prices of crops are increased or decreased on the whims and fancies of some sections of society and certain lobbies. The farmers are suffering the most due to the flip-flops over agriculture issues. If onion prices go up a little, some sections start making a hue and cry after which the prices are controlled. It should be stopped. The farm laws will come in handy in such volatile situations," he said.

He said t the expert panel worked for three months to prepare a comprehensive report on three farm laws and submitted it to the Supreme Court. "But the court did not publicise it despite our requests. So, for the larger interest of the farmers, I took the conscious decision to put it in the public domain. My intention was to let the people know the truth and then they will decide," Ghanwat said.

"We were fighting for reforms in agriculture. The government accepted our demand and passed three farm laws. But under pressure from some sections, PM Narendra Modi repealed them. We want these farm laws back."

"It is true that there are some lacunas in the farm laws but those will be addressed. We have given our recommendations. The government should accept the report and start working over it," he said.

Demanding that crop prices be linked to the international market, Ghanwat said, "The government should not control the prices under the pressure of traders and other interest groups and lobbies. The last time soyabean prices went up in the international market, the government hurriedly put a ban on export."

Agriculture is the most neglected sector and farmers continue to commit suicide. The system should be changed by overhauling laws, he added.

Clamour within Sikh outfits against Akali Dal's role in religious bodies

HARPREET BAJWA @ Chandigarh

PROBLEMS for the 102-year-old Shiromani Akali Dal (SAD), already facing a crisis following its decimation in the Punjab polls, may increase in the next Shiromani Gurdwara Parbandhak Committee (SGPC) elections. The party recently lost control over the Delhi Sikh Gurdwara Management Committee (DSGMC).

Many Sikh leaders argue the Badals should stand down from the party leadership and that SAD should stay away from polls to religious bodies.

As many as 31 DSGMC members elected on the SAD ticket recently parted ways with SAD and formed a separate party SAD (Delhi) headed by Harmeet Singh Kalka. The new group has a panthic-centric agenda. "SAD's panthic ideology and support base has eroded. It no longer represents the Sikh masses," Kalka said. In response, SAD had convened an emergency meeting and expelled Kalka from the party while dissolving its Delhi unit.

Sikh groups and many elected members to these religious bodies say that religious parties should not contest political elections and vis-a-versa.

The SAD (Delhi) led by Paramjit Singh Sarna and Jag Aasra Guru Ott party led by Manjit GK have both been DSGMC's former presidents and have registered their groups under the Societies Act as religious parties. The latest to enter the religious space is SAD (Delhi) of Harmeet Singh Kalka.

Talking to this reporter, Sarna, who has been spearheading a campaign against the Badals, said, "We have passed resolutions in our recent meeting which was attended by over 70 prominent Sikh intellectuals and historians. The resolutions demanded that Sukhbir Singh Badal should resign from the top SAD post. We have also demanded that only religious groups should contest SGPC and DSGMC elections."

Two party leaders and members of the SGPC, Kiranjot Kaur and Baldev Singh Chunga, have also revolted, calling for an end to the Badal family rule. They held wrong policies of the Badals responsible for SAD's defeats in various polls.

Kaur is the granddaughter of Sikh visionary leader Master Tara Singh. "SAD is no more a panthic party as it used to be. So, like other political parties, it should distance itself from religious outfits," she said. "Sikh institutions like the Akal Takht and SGPC are being manipulated and 'panthic maryada (religious dignity)' being compromised for political gains. Until the Badal family is evicted, the party can never regain its prestige."

SGPC general secretary Karnail Singh Panjoli said the present SAD leadership has lost credibility among Sikhs.

J&K has huge potential, say Gulf investors, L-G

FAYAZ WANI @ Srinagar

A 34-member delegation of businessmen from the UAE, Hong Kong and other GCC countries, which is on four-day visit to J&K to explore investment opportunities, on Tuesday met local businessmen and entrepreneurs during Gulf Business Summit in Srinagar.

L-G Manoj Sinha highlighted the scope for cooperation between J&K and GCC companies to make the 'paradise on earth' the most beautiful investment destination in the world.

"We promise to provide global standard end-to-end facilities for the businesses, skilled workforce, transparent and hassle-free regulatory mechanism and creation of necessary infrastructure wherever required," Sinha said. "Since my Dubai Expo visit in January, many companies from the UAE have announced long-term plans for J&K. We are ready to take the relationship to a qualitatively new level and strengthen our economic partnership."

Thanking India and Indians "who built with us the UAE", Abdul al Shaybani, CEO of Emirates International Investment Group, said, "Kashmir is a piece of paradise. There is a big opportunity for our whole team to invest here." The delegation visited stalls put up by entrepreneurs at SKICC.

Indian-origin airman allowed to sport tilak in US

YESHI SELI @ New Delhi

DARSHAN Shah, an airman posted at the FE Warren Air Force Base in Wyoming, USA, has been granted a religious waiver and allowed to sport a tilak while in uniform.

Shah, an aerospace medical technician assigned to the 90th Operational Medical Readiness Squadron, had been seeking a waiver since he joined the military two years back. It was approved last month.

"We live in a country where we're allowed to practice the faith we want. That's what makes it such a great country. We're not persecuted for what we follow or believe in. If it wasn't for the First Amendment, I wouldn't be able to do this at all. I wouldn't be able to be who I am while being a member of the military or even a citizen," said Shah through an official communication of the 90th Missile Wing Chaplain Corps.

Shah grew up in Eden Prairie, Minnesota, in a Gujarati household who are followers of Bochasanwasi Shri AksharPurushottan Swaminarayan Sanstha or BAPS. The religious symbol of this sect is a red dot or Chandlo surrounded by an orange U-shaped tilak.

He began seeking a waiver allowing him to wear Tilak Chandlo in uniform since attending basic military training in June 2020.

"For some airmen, displaying aspects of their religious faith is a matter of sincere personal responsibility, though at times it may be in conflict with uniform rules and regulations. For one Mighty Ninety Airman, it means seeking a religious waiver to wear a Tilak Chandlo in uniform," said a statement issued by the 90th Missile Wing Chaplain Corps.

Shah plans to serve in the US Air Force for at least 20 years. He would like to become a commissioned officer and serve as a doctor after earning his degree. Francis E Warren Air Force Base is located three miles west of Ceyenne, Wyoming. It is one of the three strategic missile bases in the US.

Haryana passes Bill against conversion

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Chandigarh

FOLLOWING in the footsteps of other BJP-ruled states such as Uttar Pradesh, Karnataka and Madhya Pradesh, the Haryana Assembly on Tuesday passed a Bill against religious conversion.

The Haryana Prevention of Unlawful Conversion of Religion Bill, 2022 was introduced in the Assembly on March 4. It was passed amid protests and walkout by Congress MLAs.

The bill provides for imprisonment of one to five years and a fine of not less than ₹1 lakh if any person or group is found involved in religious conversion by allurement, use of force, fraudulent means or coercion. As per the Bill, the onus of proof lies with the accused.

The bill also states that whoever converts or attempts to convert a minor, a woman or a person belonging to the Scheduled Castes or Scheduled Tribes, shall be punished with imprisonment for a term which shall not be less than four years, and may extend to 10 years and will be liable to fine not less than ₹3 lakh. The bill provides for declaring null and void marriages done solely for the purpose of religious conversion.

Oppn leader retaliates to desertion claims

Rajasthan CM's advisor and MLA Sanyam Lodha's tweet, where he claimed that 10 MLAs of Gujarat Congress are in touch with BJP, has rocked top rungs of Gujarat politics. Leader of opposition and Congress leader Sukhram Rathva retaliated by saying that 10 BJP MLAs and many senior leaders who are afraid of not getting tickets from BJP in the coming elections are in touch with the Congress. The Congress leader told to media that apart from Congress leaders who had defected to the BJP, 10 disgruntled BJP leaders were in touch with him. "Those who are not in the running for election tickets are also in contact with us," said the LoP.

After Chaudhary, Koli group divided ahead of election

With the Gujarat Assembly elections around the corner, representatives of different communities are coming together to put forth their demands before the government. While the politics of casteism is at its peak in the state, after the Chaudhary community in north Gujarat, now the Koli community of Saurashtra is on the verge of a split. The rivalry between two leaders from the community– former minister Kunwarji Bawaliya and former MP Devji Fatehpara – is now the fault line of the community. According to sources, in a Koli Sammelan, Devji Fatehpara said that Kunwarji Bawaliya will not be invited to future meetings. The former further asked, "Why is Kunwarjibhai running separately? Koli leaders have been frustrated and our members do not take Kunwarjibhai as their leader."

UKRAINE FORCES DRIVE RUSSIAN TROOPS OUT OF MAKARIV

Ukrainian troops take control of key highway, block Russia from surrounding Kyiv from northwest | Russian forces continue to squeeze other areas near capital

KYIV

UKRAINE said it retook a strategically important suburb of Kyiv on Tuesday, as Russian forces squeezed other areas near the capital and pressed their attack on the embattled southern port of Mariupol.

Explosions and bursts of gunfire shook Kyiv, and black smoke rose from a spot in the north. Intensified artillery fire could be heard from the northwest, where Russia has sought to encircle and capture several suburban areas of the capital, a crucial target. Residents sheltered at home or underground under a 35-hour curfew imposed by city authorities till Wednesday morning.

Russian forces also continued their siege of Mariupol after the southern port city's defenders refused demands to surrender.

Early Tuesday, Ukrainian troops drove Russian forces out of the Kyiv suburb of Makariv after a fierce battle, Ukraine's Defense Ministry said. The regained territory allowed Ukrainian forces to retake control of a key highway and block Russian troops from surrounding Kyiv from the northwest.

Still, the Defense Ministry said Russian forces were able to partially take other northwest suburbs, Bucha, Hostomel and Irpin, some of which had been under attack almost since Russia's military invaded almost a month ago.

Russia's invasion has driven more than 10 million people from their homes, almost a quarter of Ukraine's pre-war population, according to the United Nations. The UN has confirmed 953 civilian deaths while saying the real toll is probably much higher.

> Putin's back is against the wall. He wasn't anticipating the extent or the strength of our unity. And the more his back is against the wall, the greater the severity of the tactics he may employ
>
> Joe Biden, US President

Estimates of Russian military casualties in the grinding war have been hard to come by and vary, but even conservative figures by Western officials are in the low thousands.

Facing stiff resistance, Russian President Vladimir Putin's forces are increasingly concentrating their air power and artillery on Ukraine's cities and the civilians living there. A senior U.S. defense official, speaking on condition of anonymity to discuss the military's assessment, said Russia had increased its air sorties, carrying out as many as 300 over a 24-hour period.

US and British officials say Kyiv remains Russia's primary objective. The bulk of Moscow's forces remain miles from the center, but missiles and artillery have destroyed apartment buildings and a large shopping mall, which was left a smoking ruin after being hit late Sunday by strikes that killed eight people, according to emergency officials.

US President Joe Biden, who is heading to Europe later in the week to meet with allies, suggested on Monday that worse may be still to come.

Meanwhile, as part of a series of addresses to foreign legislatures to drum up support for Ukraine, Zelenskyy spoke to Italian lawmakers on Tuesday, telling them that the besieged port of Mariupol had been utterly destroyed in the Russian onslaught. He also spoke to Pope Francis. "Imagine a Genoa completely burned down, he told lawmakers, citing an Italian port city of a similar size. AP

NO SANCTIONS ON RUSSIA: SERBIA

Belgrade: A Serbian official on Tuesday said Belgrade will never impose sanctions or join the Western 'hysteria' against Russia for its invasion of Ukraine. Serbia's Interior Minister Aleksandar Vulin said: "Serbia will never be part of the anti-Russian hysteria in which the property of Russian citizens and the property of the Russian Federation is stolen, just as we will not ban Russian media." Serbia is a staunch Russian ally, though it has condemned its invasion of Ukraine. Serbia is seeking EU membership, but is the only European country that has refused to join international sanctions against Russia.

RIPPLES BEING FELT ACROSS THE GLOBE

Beyond the human toll, the war has shaken the post-Cold War global security consensus, imperiled global supply of key crops, including wheat, and repeatedly raised worries it could set off a nuclear accident.

Ukraine's natural resources minister said wildfires near the Chernobyl nuclear power plant have been extinguished and radiation levels in the area are within norms.

The power supply at the decommissioned plant was temporarily cut earlier this month, and Ukraine's nuclear regulatory agency said on Monday that radiation monitors around the plant had stopped working.

UN divided over naming Russia in resolution

UNITED NATIONS

FRANCE and Mexico are pressing UN members to mention Russia's invasion in a resolution on the worsening hmanitarian situation in Ukraine. But South Africa is arguing against it, saying that inserting political issues may block consensus on helping civilians.

A French-Mexican draft resolution expected to be voted on later this week in the 193-nation UN General Assembly reiterates the world body's March 2 demand for Russia to stop its military offensive in Ukraine and withdraw all its troops. It also demands the protection of all civilians and infrastructure indispensable to their survival. The draft says the 'dire humanitarian consequences' of Russia's aggression in Ukraine 'are on a scale that the international community has not seen in Europe in decades.' It deplores Russia's shelling, airstrikes and besiegement of densely populated cities.

A rival South African draft resolution circulated later makes no mention of Russia. Instead, it calls for 'immediate cessation of hostilities' as a first step in ameliorating the humanitarian situation, refers to 'all parties,' and encourages 'political dialogue, mediation and other peaceful means aimed at achieving lasting peace.' AP

Kremlin rejects US' cyberattack charge

Moscow: Kremlin spokesman Dmitry Peskov on Tuesday rejected US President Joe Biden's warning that Russia may be planning a cyberattack against the US. Peskov said the Russian Federation, unlike many Western countries including the US, does not engage in banditry on the state level.

Nazi camp survivor killed in Ukraine honoured

Berlin: Germany's parliament on Tuesday paid tribute to Boris Romanchenko, who survived several Nazi concentration camps during World War II but was killed last week during an attack in the Ukrainian city of Kharkiv. He was 96. Deputy speaker Katrin Goering-Eckardt said: "His death reminds us that Germany has a special historical responsibility toward Ukraine."

Refugee exodus surpasses 3.5 million

Geneva: The UN refugee agency says more than 3.5 million people have fled Ukraine since Russia's invasion, passing another milestone in an exodus that has led to Europe's worst refugee crisis since World War II. UNHCR reported on Tuesday that 3.53 million people have left Ukraine, with Poland taking in the lion's share — more than 2.1 million — followed by Romania with more than 540,000 and Moldova with more than 367,000. Shortly after the invasion on Feb. 24, UNHCR predicted that some 4 million refugees might leave Ukraine. The outflows have been slowing in recent days after peaking at more than 200,000 each on two straight days in early March.

No survivors found in China flight crash

WUZHOU (CHINA)

MUD-STAINED wallets. Bank cards. Official identity cards. Poignant reminders of 132 lives presumed lost were lined up by rescue workers scouring a remote Chinese mountainside Tuesday for the wreckage of a China Eastern flight that one day earlier inexplicably fell from the sky and burst into a huge fireball.

No survivors have been found among the 123 passengers and nine crew members. Video clips posted by China's state media show small pieces of the Boeing 737-800 plane scattered over a wide forested area, some in green fields, others in burnt-out patches with raw earth exposed after fires burned in the trees. Each piece of debris has a number next to it, the larger ones marked off by police tape.

As family members gathered at the destination and departure airports, what caused the plane to drop out of the sky shortly before it would have begun its descent to the southern China metropolis of Guangzhou remained a mystery.

Rescuers conduct search operations at the site of a plane crash in Tengxian County in southern China's Guangxi Zhuang Autonomous Region on Tuesday | AP

The search for the black boxes, which hold the flight data and cockpit voice recorders, would be difficult, the official Xinhua News Agency said, and involve drones and manual searching.

The crash left a deep pit in the mountainside, Xinhua said, citing rescuers. Chen Weihao, who saw the falling plane while working on a farm, told the news agency it hit a gap in the mountain where nobody lived.

"The plane looked to be in one piece when it nosedived. Within seconds, it crashed," Chen said. China Eastern flight 5735 crashed outside the city of Wuzhou in the Guangxi region while flying from Kunming, the capital of the southwestern province of Yunnan, to Guangzhou, an industrial center not far from Hong Kong on China's southeastern coast. It ignited a fire big enough to be seen on NASA satellite images before firefighters could extinguished it.

No foreigners were on board the lost flight, the Foreign Ministry said, citing a preliminary review. Dinglong Culture, a Guangzhou company in both mining and TV and movie production, said in a statement to the Shenzhen stock exchange that its CFO, Fang Fang, was a passenger. Zhongxinghua, an accounting firm used by Dinglong, said that two of its employees were also on the flight.

The crash site is surrounded on three sides by mountains and accessible only by foot and motorcycle on a steep dirt road in the semitropical Guangxi region, famed for some of China's most spectacular scenery.

Rain fell on Tuesday afternoon as excavators dug out a path to make access easier, state broadcaster CCTV said. The steepness of the slope made the positioning of heavy equipment difficult. AP

Parl okays changes to anti-terrorism law

Colombo: Sri Lanka's Parliament on Tuesday approved amendments to the country's controversial counter-terrorism law, which has drawn international criticism for its harsh provisions. The bill to amend the Prevention of Terrorism Act (Temporary Provisions) of 1979 was approved with 86 votes in favour and 35 against in the 225-member assembly. The government by a gazette notification in January announced amendments to PTA. The amendments gazetted included steps such as reduction of the detention period, magistrates visiting the places of detention to eliminate torture, lawyers to be given access to detainees, allow communication with relatives, to expedite hearing of cases and the introduction of a new section to allow bail for PTA detainees. ### Power outage alert amid quake damage, cold

Tokyo: Japanese were on Tuesday urged to conserve energy as the government warned of potential blackouts here due to a shortfall in power generation after several coal-fired plants temporarily stopped generating electricity following an earthquake last week.The rare alert came as people used more heat than usual due to snow and unusually cold weather for the early spring. The magnitude-7.4 earthquake off the coast of Fukushima on March 16 killed four people and injured more than 230 others. Last week's quake caused temporary power outages, peaking at two million homes in Tokyo and eight other areas, as the coal-fired plants in the region serviced by the Tokyo Electric Power Company Holdings assessed and repaired damage. ### Russian court sentences Navalny to 9 yrs in jail

Moscow: Russian opposition leader Alexei Navalny was convicted of fraud and contempt of court and sentenced to nine years in a maximum security prison on Tuesday, in a trial Kremlin critics see as an attempt to keep President Vladimir Putin's most ardent foe in prison for as long as possible. A judge also ruled that Navalny would have to pay a fine of 1.2 million rubles (about $11,500). Navalny can appeal the ruling. AP

'OIC, China should partner up to find solution to Russia-Ukraine conflict'

ISLAMABAD

PAKISTAN Prime Minister Imran Khan on Tuesday warned that the world was heading in the "wrong" direction characterised by a 'Cold War' and the politics of rival blocs, as he suggested that the Muslim countries and China should partner up to find a solution to the Russia-Ukraine conflict.

Delivering the keynote address at the inaugural session of the 48th Council of Foreign Ministers of the Organisation of Islamic Cooperation (OIC) at the Parliament House here, Khan also talked about his concept of Muslim welfare state, Islamophobia and the global political affairs.

"The world is going to a Cold War and may be divided into blocs'The world is moving towards a direction which is worrisome for all of us,' Khan told the conference which is being attended by more than 600 delegates, including Chinese Foreign Minister Wang Yi as a special guest. Khan suggested that OIC foreign ministers should discuss how the body could "mediate, try to bring about a ceasefire and an end to the conflict" in Ukraine. If the war continued, it would have "great consequences for the world", he said.

Price of Petrol, diesel up by 80 paise/litre

Petrol in Delhi will cost ₹96.21 a litre as against ₹95.41 previously, diesel to cost ₹87.47/ litre

RAKESH KUMAR @ New Delhi

AFTER four and half months of hiatus, the Oil Marketing Companies (OMCs) on Tuesday have increased the price of Petrol and diesel by 80 paise a litre each. The price was on a pause for the last 137 days, despite the high crude prices in the international markets.

Now, Petrol in Delhi will cost ₹96.21 a litre as against ₹95.41 previously and diesel will cost ₹87.47 per litre.

Simultaneously, the price of domestic LPG cylinders has also been hiked by ₹50. With this hike, a 14.2 kg non-subsidised LPG cylinder will now cost customers in New Delhi ₹949.50.

Experts opined that hike on petrol diesel and LPG was on expected lines and its impact will largely show up in the April inflation number. "Retail fuel prices of petrol and diesel have been kept unchanged since November 2021, whereas global crude oil prices rose by close to $30 per barrel during this period. The pass-through of rising crude oil prices to domestic fuel prices is, therefore, inevitable, and further hikes can also be expected," said Dipti Deshpande, Principal Economist, CRISIL Ltd.

The oil price in the International market has been on rise for the past three months, and the ongoing war between Russia and Ukraine only exacerbated the situation. The Brent Crude Future, the benchmark of international oil price, had even touched $140 a barrel for the first time since 2014. However, it again came down under $100 per barrel after a week or so. JP Morgan in its report highlighted that with Brent at $105 per barrel, the Oil Marketing Companies are losing ₹5 to ₹7 per litre.

Thus, the hike in the retail price of petrol and diesel was imminent. However, the government hasn't touched the price since 4th November 2021, after the government cut excise duty on petrol by ₹5 per litre and that on diesel by ₹10 a litre. At that time, Brent Crude was trading at $81 per barrel.

"The lower excise duty relative to last year will help moderate the impact of rising international crude oil prices, it will not be sufficient to lower fuel inflation if Brent prices stay above $90 per barrel throughout next fiscal. In that case, the government may need to cut excise duties further to alleviate the burden on consumers," said Deshpande. India imports 85% of its oil requirement, making it one of the most vulnerable to higher oil prices.

Feb Crude oil production below target

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

INDIA'S crude oil production dropped to 2272.26 thousand metric tonnes (TMT) in February, which is 2.19% lower when compared with the corresponding period of the previous year and 5.6% short of the official target.

As per the data by the petroleum ministry, the cumulative crude oil production during April-February 2021-22 stood at 27,162.3 TMT, which is 4.71% lower than the target and 2.57% lower than the production during the corresponding period of last year. Crude oil production by the Oil and Natural Gas Corporation (ONGC) at 1510.52 TMT, was 2.92% lower than month's target.

SRI LANKA

TO HIRE GLOBAL LAW FIRM TO AID DEBT RESTRUCTURING

Sri Lanka will hire a global law firm to provide technical assistance on debt restructuring ahead of talks with the International Monetary Fund (IMF) on the country's economic crisis, a top official said on Tuesday. The island's currency reserves have slumped 70% in the last two years to $2.31 billion and it has to repay about $4 billion in debt in the remainder of this year. The drain of its dollars has left Sri Lanka struggling to pay for critical imports, including food, fuel and medicine. The government ordered the military to post soldiers at hundreds of gas stations on Tuesday to help distribute fuel. Sri Lanka's cabinet made the decision to appoint a technical adviser on Monday, spokesman Ramesh Pathirana told reporters. He said the central bank governor, foreign and justice ministers would oversee the selection process. Sri Lanka's finance minister is due to head to Washington next month for the IMF talks.

JAPAN

EYES MORE STIMULUS AS RECORD BUDGET CLEARS PARLI

Japan stands ready to take further stimulus steps as economic and financial market uncertainty emerges over the Ukraine crisis, policymakers said on Tuesday, as Parliament approved a record 107.6 trillion yen (S$1.2 trillion) state Budget for the next fiscal year. The passage of the 107.6 trillion yen Budget through Parliament paved the way for Prime Minister Fumio Kishida's administration to seek yet another spending package to support households facing rising food and fuel bills. "We will flexibly respond to the needs of further measures, while examining changes in the circumstances," Kishida told reporters. The government has proposed providing cash payouts to low-income pensioners, while easing the pain of surging fuel prices through subsidies and tax incentives for consumers. Finance Minister Shunichi Suzuki also said he would respond as appropriate if additional measures were needed, although he was not considering compiling an extra stimulus Budget now.

SINGAPORE

CAN DEPLOY MORE FISCAL, MONETARY MEASURES

Singapore's finance minister stated on Tuesday said the city-state's economy should continue to grow this year, but authorities are ready to deploy more fiscal and monetary policy measures if a worsening Russia-Ukraine disaster impacted progress and inflation. They had projected GDP to grow by 3-5% in 2022. The forecast was supplied earlier than Russia's invasion of Ukraine. Moscow calls its actions there a "special operation". Our baseline assumption and projection is still that we are still able to continue growing as an economy this year," Lawrence Wong advised a enterprise discussion board. "But you cannot rule out more adverse situations or scenarios where potentially we enter a recession, or we start to experience stagflation-like conditions," he stated. Over the previous two years, the federal government has dedicated near S$100 billion ($73.61 billion) to cushion its folks, companies and the financial system from the impression of the pandemic.

INCOME TAX

IT searches Hiranandani group premises

RAM SAHGAL @ Mumbai

THE Income-Tax (IT) department on Tuesday conducted searches across premises linked to developers Hiranandani Group in connection with a "undisclosed foreign assets" case, said a source aware of the development.

The searches were happening at over 20 locations across Mumbai, Chennai and Bengaluru and relate to the brothers being alleged beneficiaries of an undisclosed offshore trust, according to the Pandora Papers. The Pandora Papers leak last year alleged that Niranjan and some of his family members were beneficiaries of a trust with assets of over $60 million. The income tax department has confirmed that raids were being conducted at the premises of Hiranandani, but refused to give more details about it. A spokesperson from Hiranandani said, "The group has already clarified that the offshore trust/assets held by the family abroad is fully bonafide and compliant with all laws. Further, all queries of the authorities are being fully addressed and we assure our full cooperation in the matter."

The brothers recently split 90% of the group's assets in Mumbai Mteropolitan Region between themselves. The brothers split the Mumbai assets after 40 years of it operating under a single umbrella. The group has developed sprawling residences in suburbs like Powai and Thane in Mumbai.

I-T Dept detects cash transactions of ₹3k cr after raids on Omaxe group

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

THE income tax department has gathered evidence that New Delhi-based real estate group Omaxe is allegedly indulged in "unaccounted" cash transactions with customers to the tune of over ₹3,000 crore.

The CBDT (Central Board of Direct Taxes) in a statement said that it raided the premises of a leading real estate group active in North India on March 14. The search action covered more than 45 premises in Delhi NCR, Chandigarh, Ludhiana, Lucknow and Indore.

"A large amount of incriminating evidence including hard copy documents and digital data have been found & seized during the search. The seized evidence contains unaccounted 'on-money' cash receipt data of the group from various customers for more than 10 years," the statement said.

It added that the key employees/business heads of various projects have stated the modus operandi of the group and have admitted that the group has generated unaccounted income by accepting 'on-money' unaccounted cash from its customers which have not been recorded in the regular books of account. Evidence of receipt of such 'on-money' exceeding ₹3,000 crore has been gathered so far, the CBDT statement said.

The perusal of evidence further reveals that they contain particulars of investors from whom the group has received cash loans amounting to ₹450 crore. The search action has led to the seizure of unaccounted cash of more than ₹25 crore and jewellery worth ₹5 crore. Moreover, 11 lockers have been placed under restraint, and are yet to be operated. CBDT added that further investigations are in progress.

Omaxe is one of the leading real estate developers of Delhi NCR. According to the company website, the brand 'Omaxe' was founded in 1987 by first-generation entrepreneur & civil engineer Rohtas Goel, who is also the chairman and whole time director of the company.

ULTRATECH CEMENT

Cement demand is expected to remain strong and witness 6-8% CAGR over next 10 years, led by the government's thrust on Infrastructure development and recent improvement in housing demand. UTCEM is in a strong position to gain market share, led by its distribution network. We estimate consolidated EBITDA/adjusted PAT CAGR of 16%/21% over FY22- 24E, driven by 9% volume CAGR, decline in energy costs, and lower interest expense. We reiterate Buy rating.

Invesco call for EGM not illegal: Bombay HC

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ Mumbai

A division bench of the Bombay High Court (HC) set aside a single-judge order that restrained Invesco Developing Markets Fund, Zee Entertainment's (Zee) largest shareholder, to hold an extraordinary general meeting (EGM) of shareholders for removing the company's MD & CEO Punit Goenka.

The HC, however, directed three weeks of status quo on the matter. The written copy of the judgement was awaited till the time of going to press. The three weeks' time would be used by Zee to appeal against the HC order in the apex court. The Zee stock corrected 3.2% to ₹248.55 apiece post Tuesday's judgement, which came during market hours. Noting that the requisition notice by Invesco to the Zee board for holding the EGM was neither illegal nor incapable of being set aside, the High Court quashed the single judge's order on all counts.

Invesco, which holds close to 18% in Zee, had in September last year sent a requisition notice to the Zee board of directors to convene an EGM on the ground of the company's operations not running as smoothly as desired. It sought the removal of Goenka and two other directors.

When Zee refused to respond to the requisition, Invesco moved the National Company Law Tribunal (NCLT), Mumbai, which directed Zee to consider the requisition notice in accordance with law.

Zee moved the Bombay HC on the ground of Invesco's requisition notice being illegal and invalid.

A single-judge bench of Justice GS Patel in October last year granted an interim injunction against the holding of an EGM. Invesco then filed an appeal against the interim injunction order, saying HC had no jurisdiction to hear the matter, which should have been heard and decided by the tribunal. In December 2021, Sony Pictures Network India inked a deal to merge with Zee.

No compromise on Autonomy: ICAI President

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

THE newly-elected president of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (ICAI) has said that the institute is proud of its autonomy and it would not cede ground when it comes to its autonomy.

Debashis Mitra, who has been elected as the president of ICAI for 2022-23, said this while talking about the institute's difference with the government on the proposed CA Act amendment bill.

The bill has been referred to the parliamentary committee on finance headed by Jayant Sinha. A team of Institute of Chartered Accountants of India headed by the newly appointed president met with Jayant Sinha on Tuesday and gave its views on the CA Act Amendment Bill.

The most contentious of the proposals in the amendment bill is the inclusion of three government nominees in ICAI's five-member disciplinary committee.

Currently, two members are nominated by the government in the disciplinary committee, and the ICAI wants the government to maintain the status quo.

Refuting the charges that the ICAI, which regulates CAs in the country, is lenient on its members found involved in unethical practices, the president said that they have closed 65.5% of the 5,873 disciplinary cases since 2007.

The ICAI, according to the president, has in the past 15 years permanently revoked membership of seven CAs who were found indulging in unethical practices.

Apart from them, the ICAI has revoked membership of 260 CAs for a period of 6 months to over five years since 2007.

On delays in closing disciplinary cases, the ICAI president said that the CA Act Amendment Bill wants time-bound closure of cases, which the ICAI agrees with.

ICAI working on paper on Crypto

New Delhi: ICAI President Debashis Mitra on Tuesday said the institute is working on a research paper on cryptocurrencies, which is expected to be ready in one-and-a-half months. Currently, cryptocurrencies are unregulated in the country. Mitra said once the research paper is complete, it will be submitted to the government. "We are seized of the matter," Mitra told reporters here. The Union Budget 2022-23 has brought in clarity concerning the levy of income tax on crypto assets. From April 1, a 30% I-T plus cess and surcharges will be levied on such transactions.

Meesho targets to reach 12 L sellers by 2022-end

UMA KANNAN @ Bengaluru

INTERNET commerce platform Meesho, which is backed by SoftBank and Facebook, targets 10-12 lakh sellers by the end of this year. At present, the platform has close to four lakh sellers. It has also set an ambitious target of achieving 100 million monthly transacting users by December 2022.

"When we get to that number, we will be the e-commerce platform in the country with the largest seller base. A year ago, we had 90,000 sellers, and we have already grown five times and we have another 3x growth plan on the seller side," Kirti Varun Avasarala, Chief Product Officer at Meesho told TNIE.

At present, Amazon and Flipkart are the largest e-commerce players in India.

Meesho is launching an integrated e-commerce app for buyers and sellers. "Sellers need an interface to manage their business- accept the orders, upload and list their products- they do these activities through a desktop portal. Now, we are introducing a mobile version of that portal, " Kirti Varun said.

The platform is aggressively acquiring more sellers, which include a large proportion of small sellers. "Most of these small sellers operate in Tier-2 and beyond cities spread across the country. They are small traders and manufacturers, who have been selling mostly offline. Now, they are coming online and selling their goods," he said.

Meesho has grown close to 40x since the beginning of the pandemic in March 2020, and recently during the Holi sale, it recorded over 1.4 crore orders in three days. It provides access to over 77 million products from different categories.

With an aim to onboard more sellers, the internet commerce platform is also investing in making the seller app and all of the tools in 10-12 different languages.

10-MIN DELIVERY

Zomato Instant to offer omlette, Maggi in 10 min

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ Bengaluru

A day after online food delivery platform Zomato announced its 10-minute food delivery offering 'Zomato Instant', its founder Deepinder Goyal said the delivery will be for specific nearby locations, popular and standardised menu items, which include maggi, bread omelette, poha, coffee, chai, biryani and momos.

Goyal took to Twitter and explained about the 10-minute delivery after receiving backlash from social media users who were questioning the safety of delivery partners.

"No penalties for late deliveries. No incentives for on-time deliveries for both 10- and 30-minute deliveries," he said. The food delivery platform will also be building new food stations to enable the 10-minute service for specific customer locations. Goyal said 10-minute delivery is as safe for its delivery partners as 30-minute delivery.

JFL to acquire Gold Harvest's 10% stake in JV

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

JUBILANT FoodWorks Limited on Tuesday informed in an exchange filing that it has issued a notice to exercise its call option for acquiring the remaining 10% equity stake in its joint venture Jubilant Golden Harvest (JGHL) from Golden Harvest

With this, the company will acquire the complete 49% equity stake of Golden Harvest in JGHL and post the consummation of Call Option 1 and Call Option 2, JGHL shall become a wholly owned subsidiary of Jubilant FoodWorks (JFL).

"Pursuant to the Share Subscription and Shareholders' Agreement dated March 6, 2018 executed between Jubilant Foodworks Ltd, Jubilant Golden Harvest Limited and Golden Harvest QSR Limited, JFL had informed the stock exchanges of JFL's exercise of the call option for acquiring 39% equity stake in JGHL from Golden Harvest vide letter dated September 30, 2021," the company said in the exchange filing.

JFL in September last year had exercised a call option for acquiring 39% equity stake in JGHL from Golden Harvest. Post the acquisition, JFL owned 90% of the total shareholding of JGHL and Golden Harvest owned the remaining 10% of the total shareholding of JGHL.

Jubilant Golden Harvest Ltd (JGHL) is a JV between JFL and Golden Harvest Ltd, a Bangladesh-based diversified business group and has the franchise rights to develop and operate Domino's Pizza restaurants in Bangladesh. As on December 31, 2021, JGHL has eight restaurants.

The parties will obtain necessary governmental/regulatory approvals, if required, under applicable laws for the transaction, the company said, adding it will be an 'all-cash consideration' and the transaction will be based on a valuation report from a chartered accountant/ Independent Accounting Firm.

Jubilant FoodWorks saw its stock on Tuesday close at 2,622.40, up 2.67% on Bombay stock exchange (BSE).

Tata Motors to hike prices of commercial vehicles from Apr 1

HOMEGROWN auto major Tata Motors on Tuesday said it will hike prices of its commercial vehicles range by 2-2.5%, depending upon individual model and variant, from April 1.

The increase in the prices of commodities, such as steel, aluminium and other precious metals – in addition to higher costs of other raw materials -- has incited this price hike of commercial vehicles, Tata Motors said in a regulatory filing.

Last week, luxury cars maker Mercedes-Benz India had said it would increase prices of the entire model range by up to 3% from April 1 in order to partially offset the impact of the increase in input costs. PTI

TCS buyback subscribed 5.5 times day before close

MUMBAI: Shareholders have flocked to offer their shares in the ₹18000 crore buyback by TCS , a day before the buyback issue ends. Against 4 crore offer size, a little over 22 crore shares, or 550% of the total, have been tendered. The buyback is being done at ₹4500 a share, or a 22% premium to Tuesday's closing price of ₹3700.95. Edelweiss Alternate Research estimates the acceptance ratio for retail investors could be 14.3%. which means that one out of 7 shares tendered by retail investors could be accepted. For non-retail investors, only one share could get accepted for every 108 shares tendered. The acceptance ratio is lower than previous buybacks done by TCS. Analysts suggest that volatile market conditions could have resulted in huge number of shares being tendered.

Shri Kshetra Dharmasthala Rural Development Project (R.)
Dharmasthala
"Nammuru- NammaKere", a state level programme for the rejuvenation of lakes & water tanks is being implementd by Shri Kshetra Dharmasthala Rural Development Project.
In this participatory programme, 387 lakes till now have been rejuvenated. This has led to increase in water storage capacity of the lakes by Rs. 760.16 crore gallons.
Shri Kshetra Dharmasthala Rural Development Project has provided Rs 30 crore for Tank rejuvenation works. The local populace has partnered in Rs 26.51 crore worth of silt lifting.
65 lakes & tanks have been rejuvenated in association with the 'Kere Sanjeevini' programme of the Government of Karnataka. Rs 5.80 crore grant by the Government of Karnataka has been utilised for this purpose.
Let us celebrate World Water Day
We worship lakes & tanks as Ganga. This is our culture, let's preserve it.
- Dr D. Veerendra Heggade
The silt lifting of the lakes has been beneficial to the animals of the surrounding villages. Due to rejuvenated borewells, barren lands are now attractive with greenery.
- Channabasappa Bheemaraya Teli, Vijayapura
Due to Dharmasthala's lake rejuvenation programme, one thousand families of our town are getting water on permanent basis.
- Puttaraju Benche, Shira
Best Wishes to all the Water Soldiers.

Becker accused of hiding tennis trophies during trial

Former tennis champion Boris Becker went on trial in London for allegedly concealing property 'including nine trophies' from bankruptcy trustees and dodging his obligation to disclose financial information to settle his debts. Prosecutors said Becker, 54, 'acted dishonestly' when he hid or failed to hand over assets before and after he was declared bankrupt in June 2017.

Prefer attacking but avoiding mistakes during big rallies vital: Lakshya

ASHIM SUNAM @ Bengaluru

THERE is something different about Lakshya Sen and fellow Indians in the badminton circuit. He has a Worlds medal, a BWF title, wins against some of the top players and reached the all England Open final (lost to Viktor Axelsen). In all of this, one tends to forget his age, just 20. Consider his age and the Prakash Padukone Badminton Academy (PPBA) shuttler's game stands out even more.

His guts, tenacity and the ability to handle pressure situations puts him in a different class. The way he glides around the court and retrieves the shuttle from impossible situations has frustrated some of the best in the business. He dives around the court to ensure the point is in play. What is even more impressive is his tendency to quickly get back on his feet before the shuttle is on his side of the court. He makes it look so easy to the eye, which is only possible due to his high level of fitness. Even when at home during lockdown in 2020, he found ways to keep up with his fitness.

He is making good use of his fitness during matches too, tiring out players with his strong defence and eventually winning points too. One needs to give credit to the PPBA foreign head coach from South Korea Yong Sung Yoo, who has helped him improve his court movements and defensive footwork of late.

Runner-up at All England Open Badminton Championship Lakshya Sen addressing the media along with coach U Vimal Kumar in Bengaluru on Tuesday | VINOD KUMAR T

More importantly, patience is a great virtue for Sen. Though he is an aggressive player, the shuttler from Almora looks at home during long rallies, which has been in evidence in the last four to six months. Also, Sen has a very good understanding of the game, changing his tactical plans midway during a contest as well.

"My natural game is to always go out there and attack. But when you do not get points and especially when the opponent has a good defence, then you try to increase the rallies and avoid making mistakes at that point as the game is 50-50. I just try to ensure to put the shuttle across the net and wait for my opponent to make a mistake," said Sen.

The shuttler, who skipped the Swiss Open, will feature in the Korea Open next month. From now on, each and every move of his will be scrutinised. There will be pressure on him to deliver at the top level consistently. Sen, who has jumped to nine in world rankings, has definitely announced his arrival on the world stage.

But the next step lies in improving his game further. He is one of the upcoming youngsters, who is challenging accomplished names like Axelsen and Anders Antonsen among others.

"It's not easy to win everything. Like one year, Kento Motota won a lot of tournaments. I think it is not possible anymore as there are so many youngsters. And after the pandemic, the experienced players, their rankings are up and down. You do not know who you are going to face in the initial rounds also," said Sen.

ALL-ROUNDER RANA RELISHING BIG STAGE

Having experienced being out of national side for over five years, she is making the most of every opportunity at the World Cup

GOMESH S @ Chennai

WHEN Sneh Rana came back into the national side for the England tour in July 2021, she had been through quite a journey in the domestic circuit. Rana went back to her home state, Punjab, for the 2017-18 season only to return to Railways a year later. In the next three years, she became the go-to player for the star-studded team, to the extent where she was leading them in 2021 when Mithali Raj was on national duty.

And it was her match-winning performances in that season — averaging 40 with a strike rate of 123.07 and leading the bowling charts with 18 scalps in 8 matches — that made her selection inevitable.

Although she grabbed the limelight with her performances in the one-off Bristol Test, Rana wasn't yet an automatic selection in the limited-overs set-up as India already had an off-spinning all-rounder in Deepti Sharma.

The same story continued in Australia as well. She was in and out of the ODI side, but every time she was on the field, Rana made sure her presence was felt. Case in point: a 22-ball 24 and a 27-ball 30 while chasing in the only two ODIs that India won in England and Australia, respectively.

And that was duly acknowledged with a place in the World Cup squad. In hindsight, that Meghna Singh and Renuka Singh Thakur missed the better part of the New Zealand tour became a blessing in disguise.

They had no choice but to play an extra spinner and Rana's batting ability pipped her chances over Poonam Yadav. She played just three matches, but did enough to secure a place in the opening game of the World Cup against Pakistan. Immediately, she had an impact with her all-round performances. Rana was making headlines in her maiden Cup. She was living her dream.

Sneh Rana scored 27 and claimed four wickets in India's emphatic win over Bangladesh in their league match in Hamilton on Tuesday | AFP

Although she had very little to contribute with the bat in the next few matches, Rana kept chipping away with wickets in almost every game.

BRIEF SCORES

India 229/7 in 50 ovs (Yastika 50, Shafali 42) bt Bangladesh 119 all out 40.3 ovs (Khatun 32; Rana 4/30). South Africa 271/5 in 50 ovs (Wolvaardt 90) lost to Australia 272/5 in 45.2 ovs (Lanning 135 n.o).

India were in a precarious position after losing against Australia. They had to win two in two to make it to the knockouts comfortably. Rana might have made her mark in the marquee event, but she was nowhere close to being finished.

"When I performed in the first match of my first World Cup, I was pretty happy at that time. However, on such a huge platform you can't be happy with just one performance," she said ahead of the Bangladesh match before adding, "I want to perform whenever my team needs me to perform."

And that is exactly what she did at Hamilton on Tuesday. She came in to bat when India were in a spot of bother, 162 for five in 43.1 overs before hitting a 27-ball 30 to take them to 229 for seven, adding 48 runs in 38 balls with Pooja Vastrakar.

With the ball, Rana was tossing it up, putting extra revs on the ball, getting it to drift and dip. So much so that for the better part of her spell, India had a proper Test match field — two slips, a short-leg and a gully. Rumana Ahmed's dismissal was an off-spinner's dream — the ball ripped across the surface, took the glove, hit the thigh pad and lobbed in front of Yastika Bhatia at short-leg.

Rana eventually finished with four for 31, her best in the format so far, helping India complete a massive 110-run win, which provided a big boost to the net run rate. It was a job well done.

But the dream is not over. They still have another crucial match against South Africa on Sunday. However, the team management can take confidence from the fact that Rana is leaving no stone unturned on her second coming.

Ali may miss opener due to visa delay

VENKATA KRISHNA B @ Chennai

THREE days ahead of their Indian Premier League (IPL) opener against Kolkata Knight Riders, Chennai Super Kings are caught in a combination deadlock. If the unavailability of Deepak Chahar because of an injury was bound to weaken their attack and affect the composition of the four overseas players, the delay in Moeen Ali's arrival has added to the headache.

The English all-rounder, one of Chennai's stand-out performers in their title-winning campaign last season, is yet to join the team because he hasn't been issued a visa yet. It is understood that a detailed verification is currently underway, which is taking more than the usual time.

"We were expecting Moeen to join us by Monday but because of the delay in issuing a visa, it is not clear when he will leave for Mumbai. He submitted the visa application on February 28, but because of the verification process, there has been a delay. Unless he enters the bubble by Wednesday noon, it won't be possible for him to play against Kolkata," CSK CEO Kasi Viswanathan told this daily.

If Ali doesn't arrive in time, it will be interesting to see how Chennai go about their combination. Last season, batting at No 3, he provided them with some much-needed aggressive display in the middle-overs, an area that proved to be their biggest undoing in the 2020 season. Though his absence is expected only for the game against Kolkata, it gives Chennai an option to try their other overseas picks.

The unavailability of Chahar for at least the first half of the tournament means they need to strengthen their fast bowling resources and as a result, apart from Dwayne Bravo, Adam Milne looks certain to be in the XI. The Kiwi's pace can be handy in the powerplay as well as in the end overs Fellow New Zealander, Devon Conway, is expected to open alongside Ruturaj Gaikwad. Ali's absence also opens the door for Robin Uthappa to slot in at No 3.

The toss-up for the remaining one overseas slot would be between Chris Jordan and Maheesh Theekshana. With Ali unavailable, mystery spinner Theekshana could be a handy option at the Wankhede should MS Dhoni prefer a tweaker to bowl in the powerplay. In that case, one among Tushar Deshpande, KM Asif and Rajvardhan Hangargekar will get a chance. That would give Dhoni four-seam bowling options in Bravo, Milne, Shivam Dube and one of the above-mentioned trio with Ravindra Jadeja and Theekshana as spinners.

However, if Chennai wish to strengthen their pace resources further by including Jordan in place of Theekshana, then the highly-rated leg-spinner Prashant Solanki could make his IPL debut.

Last season, one of Chennai's biggest strengths was its batting depth. It allowed the batters to adopt a more aggressive approach. The end result was that they were amongst the highest-scoring teams in the middle-overs, something they will be keen to replicate this season too.

CAN CHENNAI REMAIN KINGS?

IPL 3 DAYS TO GO

CSK have put faith on veterans yet again and brought in some exciting talents. It remains to be seen if they can maximise those and keep up the club's rich history. A look at how they stack up ahead of fifteenth edition of the league...

ALL ABOUT THALA

Chennai Super Kings begin with MS Dhoni and end with MS Dhoni. It is 2022, and he still remains their captain at 40, tells how far the franchise gives priority to continuity. Dwayne Bravo, Ambati Rayudu and Ravindra Jadeja who have been the backbone of the team since the readmission are all still around. They will form the core of the team alongside Moeen Ali, Ruturaj Gaikwad, Robin Uthappa, Deepak Chahar (if available). On paper, this doesn't look an intimidating T20 side by any means, but hey, one thing that the IPL has taught everyone is don't rule out Chennai Super Kings at any point. Season after season, they have the knack of turning up and delivering.

THE BIGGEST TEST

With an ageing squad, this has been heard quite often. But in a 10-team league this will be a big test for the team. There are concerns about the availability of Chahar. If he isn't available for a major part of the IPL, then Chennai don't have a reliable Indian seamer and have to bank on Adam Milne and Bravo. With Moeen being a certainty in the XI, one among Devon Conway and Maheesh Theekshana will be in contention for the remaining one overseas slot. If Bravo has fitness issues, in Chris Jordan and Dwaine Pretorius, Chennai have other options in place, but there are definitely holes to be filled.

THE WORRY

In 2020, when Chennai failed to qualify for the play-offs for the first time, their biggest obstacle was to find the balance when key players were not available or out of form. They struggled to get an ideal XI that year. Over the years, their biggest strength at the auction has been to identify the starting XI and they came close to it this time too. But with Chahar missing, and Dube far from being a consistent player, Chennai have a few weak links that opponents will target. And they will also need to field one of Tushar Deshpande, Rajvardhan Hangargekar and Prashant Solanki.

Indian captains will be talking points: Shastri

MARTIN JOSEPH @ Kochi

THE i's have been dotted and the t's have been crossed. In less than four days, the 15th edition of the Indian Premier League will start. The entry of two new franchises, Lucknow Super Giants and Gujarat Titans, has added to the buzz. That isn't the only thing that will be new. Ravi Shastri, who has called many a game over the years, will be part of the expert panel. He rejoins the group after a gap of seven years. Suresh Raina, who wasn't picked this season, will also be part of the elite panel.

The duo got together on Tuesday to talk about the league and discussed a few key things to look out for. Shastri suggested that one of the highlights this season will be the new captains, Hardik Pandya (Gujarat) and Mayank Agarwal (Punjab Kings) apart from other young captain including Shreyas Iyer (Kolkata Knight Riders) and Rishabh Pant (Delhi Capitals). The 59-year-old felt that having these homegrown captains at the helm is good for Indian cricket as one of them can take over the mantle from Rohit Sharma.

"Virat Kohli not being the captain anymore, Rohit has been an outstanding captain especially in white ball cricket. He has won more IPLs than anyone else and that itself is a massive achievement. MS Dhoni is also in the house when you count the number of IPL trophies. India will be looking very closely at the newcomers who are going to captain teams. Whether it is Shreyas, KL Rahul or Hardik. There is Rishabh who has played the role of vice-captain. And I know Rishabh and he's got one hell of a cricket brain. And it's a great opportunity for the selectors to see how these youngsters captain their sides. India will be looking to a good solid captain for the future. Rohit is still around for the next couple of years but after that they'll look and here's the opportunity," said Shastri.

If the captains will be in focus, a lot of upcoming local cricketers will also grab eyeballs after many franchises put their faith in young talents.

Abhishek Sharma is one of the players who was bought for a massive sum as Hyderabad splashed ₹6.5 crore even though the 21-year-old hasn't set the league alight. Avesh Khan was bought by Lucknow for ₹10 crore as many youngsters struck big at the auction. Raina feels that youngsters will feel the pressure but advised that they need to focus on the process.

Dutee, Tajinder and other star names gear up for IGP-2

MARTIN JOSEPH @ Kochi

THE likes of Tajinder Pal Singh Toor, Kamalpreet Kaur and Dutee Chand will be the star attractions at the Indian Grand Prix-2. The one-day event will be held at the Chandrasekharan Nair Police Stadium in Thiruvananthapuram on Wednesday and the meet could also script some interesting storylines from the rising stars.

While all the focus was on Hima Das, Amoj Jacob and other seasoned athletes in IGP-1 held last Sunday, it was youngsters like long jumper Jeswin Aldrin, quarter-miler Priya Mohan and javelin thrower DP Manu who stole the limelight.

Jeswin nearly broke M Sreeshankar's national record at that meet with an 8.20m jump and crossed the eight-meter mark on two other occasions to make everyone sit up and take notice. Young Priya managed to produce another impressive show and she is increasingly looking to break into the national relay team set-up.

"My focus is only on improving my individual performance and these meets are an opportunity to try and improve my timings," said Priya. DP Manu produced a personal best of 82.43m in javelin which helped him achieve the qualifying mark for the Asian Games and Commonwealth Games (CWG). Rohit Yadav also managed to throw past the 80m mark at the meet as other javelin throwers from the country besides Olympic champion Neeraj Chopra are slowly making their presence felt.

Dutee Chand

While elite athletes are slowly marking their returns, these athletics meets are also increasingly becoming about youngsters starting to steal the limelight. In the women's long jump, Ancy Sojan showed the strides she made recently by producing her personal best jump of 6.51m which drew praise from none other than Anju Bobby George.

Once again, expect a few surprises from the next gen athletes. While the likes of Tajinder Pal (shot put) and Kamalpreet (discus throw) are expected to dominate their events, Dutee will be the big attraction in the women's 100m. Dutee was expected to be tested by Dhanalakshmi but the Tamil Nadu sprinter is set to miss the meet having tested positive for Covid. Full story: newindianexpress.com

Karnataka's Vyshak scalps four against Delhi

BENGALURU: Karnataka's Vyshak V scalped four wickets against Delhi in the CK Nayudu Trophy at the Sawai Mansingh Stadium in Jaipur on Tuesday. The opening day witnessed Delhi struggling at 48-3, but Vaibhav Kandpal and Lakshay played brilliantly to score 98 and 67 runs respectively and help their team to score 299/6 at stumps. Shubhang Hegde and Shamanth SM also managed to take one wicket each.

Clint scores ton in Anglo Youth CA win

BENGALURU: Anglo Youth Cricket Association beat Bangalore Indian Cricket Club by 9 runs in a rain-interrupted KSCA Group I - V Division League match. Clint Carlton Meakin scored a ton to help Anglo Youth reach 313/7 in 50 overs. The target was later revised to 219 in 35 overs, but Bangalore Indian CC fell nine runs short as Ryan Robin Jones took four wickets.

Restaurant aggregator Zomato's announcement about the launch of 'delivery in 10 minutes' has left many netizens wondering how the food will be prepared and delivered in a city like Bengaluru, which is notorious for its traffic. CE brings to the table some reactions from experts in various sectors

FAST AND CURIOUS

Everybody was surprised with the news and had questions about how the food is going to be delivered in 10 minutes; how is this promise ever going to be met? It looks like an impossible task. The quality of food is going to suffer because everybody is going to pre prep their food or go the McDonalds or KFC way where items are kept ready.

– Mukesh Tolani, restaurateur

EXPRESS ILLUSTRATION

Delivery in ten minutes is an unnecessary and unsustainable format. Moving from one place to another in a large city like Bengaluru takes time. The format does help Zomato in keeping ahead of the competition. But fundamentally, it is wrong to put delivery executives under so much pressure and risk.

– Harish Bijoor, marketing guru

These apps which are offering 10-minute delivery options are not taking into account that their employees are human. These are humans who are fighting different challenges of financial pressure and other burdens. The stress of a 10-minute delivery will only make the person frustrated and angry and will result in rash driving and rude interactions with customers. These tech-based companies need to be sensitive to the well-being of their employees. That needs to be on their agenda too.

– Tamanna Tanweer Pasha, life transformation coach and mental health advocate

The stress will trickle down. It will also create issues like lack of quality, which is inevitable. A relatively simple dish like chilli chicken has a step-by-step process that has to be followed. So are you going to speed it up because it has to be delivered in 10 minutes? As it is the delivery system is under pressure, this will only increase and add to traffic violations. Even as a customer, I don't mind waiting for my food for a while.

– Gautam Krishnakutty, chef

It's unclear how Zomato plans to achieve this and what their guidelines for kitchens will be. Currently it's not possible to assess, based on their announcement whether this will actually become a reality.

– Mayur Singh Ladad
Chef incharge, Art of Dum

Quick commerce is the next big revolution which will help the working class in metro cities. If consumers have accepted the 10-minute grocery delivery, then why not the 10-minute food delivery? Although social media rants are all over with regard to the stress on delivery partners, Zomato has categorically mentioned that the delivery time commitment would not be disclosed to the rider. Moreover, these are fast moving food items that will be delivered near you. However, I do disagree that Zomato is the world's first company to venture into 10-minute food delivery because some startups in US have already introduced them a while ago.

Two high school students have written a song themed around bullying and body shaming, issues that teenagers are battling with on an everyday basis

TUNES OF TEENS

ANILA KURIAN

BULLYING, body shaming and name calling…as unfortunate as they are, these are often experienced by teenagers on a daily basis. While some comments can break the person, it can also make them. Highlighting all of these are 14-year-old Varun Anand and Arushi Paul, respectively, who composed and sang Free.

Students of Moksha Academy and training under Richard Andrew Dudley, the song has received 11k views on YouTube since its release recently. Speaking to CE, Anand says, "I started my musical journey at the age of four. I play a couple of instruments, like the guitar, keyboard, drums and bass guitar, and becoming a producer and composer has always been my dream. I'm glad I was able to do the same with Free." Paul, on the other hand, writes and sings her own lyrics. "Free is a very important song for both of us because we are victims of being bullied and body shamed too. There's a part in the video where we show messages we have personally received," she explains.

The lyrics showcase that the harsh words used against teenagers can be impactful but at the same time could also help them rise and become stronger. "That's exactly what we wanted to convey and feel powerful at the same time," adds Paul, who has sung multiple cover songs on her YouTube channel.

Starring in the video themselves has been a learning experience. While Paul loves being in front of the camera, Anand took some time to get comfortable. "It was definitely awkward for me but I think the more we did it, the more comfortable I got," he laughs.

Richard Andrew Dudley, their music teacher, says, "Both of them are very talented, not only in terms of understanding music but also being able to work with it and do what is required to make the process a powerful one."

Paul and Anand, students of Gopalan International School, spend their weekends training with Dudley. "Weekdays are usually busy with school work, so I give most of my time to singing and practising during the weekends. I want to continue singing and pursue music even if I don't take it up as a full-time course after I'm done with my board exams," says Paul. Anand chips in, "I practise the instruments for at least two hours each day. I'm currently also working on composing more music and I hope to release it in the coming months."

Meet the composer who brought popular singers together to pay tribute to late actor Puneeth Rajkumar

Puneeth Rajkumar

EXPRESS FEATURES

SANDALWOOD movie James hit the silver screen last week and it gave fans of Puneeth Rajkumar's a chance to see him on the big screen one last time. Family, friends and fans of the Power Star are still struggling to come to terms about the passing away of the actor in October.

Even as tributes continue to pour in for the star, Anitha Rangaswamy, a voice-over artiste and a fan of Puneeth, also paid tribute to her "favourite Appu sir" through the song Ellu Hogilla Neenellu Hogilla. The song, which was released recently on Anand Audio Channel on YouTube, has got 1.7 lakh views.

Shankar Mahadevan, Rajesh Krishnan, Anuradha Bhat, MD Pallavi, Hemanth Kumar, Chaitra, and Vijay Raghavendra (nephew of Rajkumar), have lent their voices for this song. Apart from these seven singers, four musicians from the Choir Troop were also part of the composition.

Rangaswamy still remembers the day she heard the news about his death — she was so overwhelmed to believe it. "I grew up with a strong Kannada sentiment and am a proud Kannadiga. What Appu sir meant for all Kannadigas is beyond any words can explain. So, instead of being sad about the loss, I wanted to show the world who he was and what he still means to us," says Rangaswamy.

Shankar Mahadevan, one of the voices of the song and a popular singer in Bollywood, said though the loss is irreplaceable, the only way he would like to pay respect to the Power Star is through music. "Wherever you are, from above, you are overlooking us, bless us. I have got a chance to offer my humble little dedication by lending my voice," he says.

HASTA GOMUKHA ARDHA PADMASANA

(HALF LOTUS COW FACE ARMS POSE)

In Sanskrit, 'hasta' means hand, 'go' means cow, 'mukha' means face, 'ardha' means half, 'padma' means lotus, and 'asana' means pose. This asana may be easy for one student but hard for another, depending on ability. This stimulates the Swadisthana (Spleen or Sacral) and Muladhara (Root) Chakras – centres of pleasure, enjoyment, love, energy, and compassion. If your hands can't touch, use a yoga strap. Use a folded blanket/ bolster to evenly rest sitting bones on the floor or stacking knees.

STEPS
- Begin in a cross-legged half lotus (Ardha Padmasana) position or any comfortable pose.
- Inhale and carry your right arm above your head and the left arm, behind you.
- Draw your shoulders down, away from the ears and keep the chest lifted.
- Then try to keep the spine straight and look forward.
- Raise your right arm and bring it over your shoulder.
- Wrap your left arm behind the back and try to grasp your left hand with the right, clasping the fingers together.
- Stay like this for 10-12 breaths.
- Release the hands and stretch the legs straight, bounce the knees a few times. Repeat by interchanging the hands.
- Finally, release the pose and relax in a comfortable cross-legged sitting posture.

BENEFITS
- Helpful to stretch your hips. Regular practice helps to relieve chronic knee pain.
- Strengthens your spine and abdominal muscles.
- Helps to decompress low spine (during folded variation).
- Strengthens the hip joint.
- Stretches several parts of the body simultaneously, including the ankles, hips, thighs, shoulders, underarms, triceps and chest.
- Helps increase the flexibility of the back, the treatment of sciatica, and stimulates the kidneys.

LIMITATIONS
- If you have sciatica, the use of a prop under the hips or folding forward could aggravate the condition.
- People who have serious neck, shoulder and knee problems, avoid practicing this asana.
- Pregnant women shouldn't fold forward during the first trimester.

MURDER, SHE WROTE

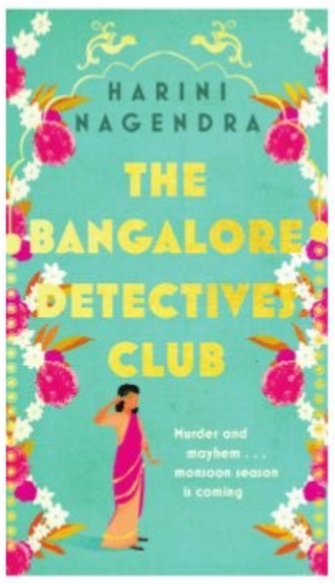
Author and ecologist Harini Nagendra speaks to CE on her soon-to-be-launched book themed around a murder mystery set in colonial Bengaluru



SANATH PRASAD

IF you are a fan of murder mystery series like Alexander McCall Smith's The No. 1 Ladies Detective Agency, Vaseem Khan's Baby Ganesh Agency and Ovidia Yu's Crown Colony series, then you are in for a desi crime-thriller treat with the launch of Harini Nagendra's new book. Titled The Bangalore Detective Club, Nagendra will be launching her third book in April which is centred around a cosy crime story set in the colonial period of Bengaluru.

As a first in the three-part series, the book features two protagonists — Kaveri and Ramu — set out to solve a crime that takes place at Century Club in Cubbon Park. Nagendra explains that the story is a combination of how Kaveri and Ramu use their investigative instincts in their own style to solve the crime. "This thriller actually predates my previous book Nature in the City. The idea cropped up in 2007 but a lot of other commitments took precedence. I started working earnestly only in 2018," says Nagendra, who is also the author of Cities and Canopies.

Besides the crime template, the book is set in 1921 to give a colonial Bengaluru feel. Nagendra says, "A lot of creative fusion took place during this time period. Century Club was a place where Indians could socialise. Calls for Independence were muted but were rising; post World War I, women had more freedom, broke conventions and had access to education. This setting actually blended well with one of the central characters of the book. Kaveri, a 19-year-old feisty woman who is newly-married, solves a murder mystery wearing a saree and understands her neighbourhood while her husband Ramu, a doctor at Bowring Hospital, solves the same murder mystery using a more professional tactic," says Nagendra, who also suggests watching out for 'Uma aunty', a nosy neighbour, infamous for her tidbits of gossip.

A lot of characters in the book are inspired by Nagendra's real-life encounters with close ones. "In fact, the idea of the protagonist wearing a saree was inspired by my husband's aunt who used to go swimming in a saree. Some characters are also inspired by the women in my family who broke many social conventions," says Nagendra, who is a fan of 'golden age' detective mysteries set in World War I and II.

> Writing a mystery thriller was a different experience. My previous books already had a structure, but for this book, I had to plot it, which was hard. Over the course of 14 years, I changed the plot over three times
>
> Harini Nagendra, author

The story also involves a lot of underbelly activities in Bengaluru's Basavanagudi, Cubbon Park, MG Road and the surrounding Cantonment area. Her research work around ecology has also been woven into the book with the protagonist talking about trees, lakes, birds, and the landscape that shaped colonial Bengaluru. "Writing a mystery thriller was a different experience. My previous books already had a structure, but for this book, I had to plot it, which was hard. Over the course of 14 years, I changed the plot over three times," says Nagendra.

Interestingly, the book concludes with a highlight of a series of South Indian food recipes. "The story extensively carries kitchen stories and how Kaveri learns to prepare new dishes. Hence, you can find a series of recipes at the end of the book that will guide you to cook an authentic Karnataka meal, starting from bisi bele bath to dry fruit ladoo," says Nagendra.

WRITINGS AROUND WARS

FLYLEAF
VR FEROSE

(The author is a technologist based in Silicon Valley who is gently mad about books)

THE second World War engulfed every continent on earth and inflicted more death and destruction on people and nations than any other recorded event. Even though most of the current generation has not lived through the war, everyone is aware of it thanks to museums, movies and books.

I have been fortunate to have visited some of the most famous World War II museums such as the Holocaust Remembrance Center at Yad Vashem (Israel), Concentration Camp Memorial Site at Dachau (Germany), Anne Frank Museum (in Amsterdam, Netherlands) and the Pearl Harbor National Memorial (in Hawaii, USA). Most of us have felt the intensity of the war through powerful movies: Schindler's List based on the book Schindler's Ark by Thomas Keneally and other films based on eponymous books such as Dunkirk (by Joshua Levine); Enemy at the Gates (William Craig) and Escape from Sobibor (Richard Rashke).

With the current Ukraine-Russia war, there is a growing interest on World War II and the lessons we can learn from it. While there are countless books written about it, every year many more are churned out, providing new perspectives. When I spoke to World War II historian Andrew Nagorski about the reason for the continued interest in the topic even after 75+ years, his response was "World War II is the greatest lab to understand human behaviour".

Here are some of my favourite World War II books. I read Hiroshima by John Hersey in one sitting. In this journalistic masterpiece, Hershey describes what happened on the day the atom bomb was dropped in the city of Hiroshima. Told through the memories of survivors, this timeless, powerful and compassionate document has become a classic "that stirs the conscience of humanity". This book was recommended to me by Beverly Potter, the 85-year-old bookstore owner of The Title Page in Philadelphia. She said, "You should read this book in one sitting, and I would like to see your face after you finish it. I promise you will have tears in your eyes." And she was right.

World War II: The Definitive Visual History from Blitzkrieg to the Atom Bomb (published by DK) is an all-encompassing book on the topic because of its visual aids and depth of information.

While Maus by Art Spiegelman is the most famous graphic novel about this war, one of the lesser-known books that I discovered was the 1999 book Dr Seuss Goes To War by Richard H Minear. It is a fascinating collection of wartime cartoons from the beloved children's author and illustrator Theodor Seuss Geisel.

One of the recent books that I read was 1941: The Year Germany Lost the War by Andrew Nagorski. The author takes a fresh look at the decisive year of 1941, when Hitler's miscalculations and policy of terror propelled Churchill, FDR, and Stalin into a powerful new alliance that defeated Nazi Germany. The year 1941 forever defined our world and this book is a lively, opinionated account of this critical year.

When it comes to fiction, some of the best have already been made into movies like The Book Thief, Catch 22 and The Boy in the Striped Pyjamas. So, I would suggest Fatherland by Robert Harris (which was made into a TV film). It is set in 1964 and imagines an alternative world where Hitler has won the World War II, the holocaust is an unconfirmed rumour, and on the eve of Hitler's 75th birthday the United States (under President Joseph Kennedy) is negotiating diplomatic ties with the Third Reich! Thank god it is fiction!

GANESH AND PREETHAM GUBBI TO TEAM UP AGAIN

A SHARADHAA

DIRECTOR Preetham Gubbi is in talks with Golden Star Ganesh for a film. If things work out, the film will mark the fourth collaboration of Preetham and Ganesh. Their previous collaborations Maleyali Jotheyali and Dil Rangeela worked well at the box office. Their last outing 99, a remake of Tamil film 96, also set the ticket counters ringing.

According to a source, Preetham has penned an excellent script for his Ganesh. The film is now in the pre-production stage, and it is likely to be Ganesh's next project. An official announcement of the project is expected soon from the makers.

Ganesh will next be seen in Yogaraj Bhat's Gaalipata 2. The actor also has Mahesh Gowda's Tribble Riding in the pipeline. Ganesh, who was hosting the reality talk show, Golden Gang, will soon start shooting for Preetham Gubbi's project. The Sakath hero has also greenlit Suni's Rayagada.

MALASHRI

EXCITED ABOUT GETTING BACK TO ACTING WITH AN ACTION-THRILLER

CE FEATURES

MALASHRI, the Kanasina Rani of Sandalwood, is back and is excited about facing the arc lights for a new film. The Nanjundi Kalyana actor, who was last seen in Uppu Huli Khara (2017), did not take up projects owing to the Covid19 pandemic, and some personal reasons.

Malashri, wife of late producer Ramu, will now be part of an action thriller helmed by Ravindra Venshi. The film went on floors on Monday, and marks Ravindra's fourth project. The director made his debut with Puttani Safari, and is awaiting the release of Matta and Vasanti Nalidaaga.

The director shared the first stills of Malashri from the film. She will be seen in the role of a doctor, who has served in the army for 15 years. "This yet-to-be-titled film is a combination of mass and class, and Malashri will be seen in a never-before-character," says Ravindra, adding, "The action-thriller is based on true incidents, and the entire film is centered around a hospital."

Ravindra Venshi and BS Chandrashekar

The actor will be seen in a role of a doctor in Ravindra Venshi's upcoming directorial

Speaking from the sets of her latest film in Bengaluru, Malashri revealed that she wanted to make her comeback with a different kind of subject and Ravindra had the perfect storyline. "I liked the subject, and the character of an army doctor. Playing a doctor in a film with elements of both action and thriller was exciting," says Malashri, who reminisced that she last played a doctor in Mruthunjaya.

Malashri, who is popularly known for her films with mass appeal, assures that this film too will see her signature style. "I should go by what the audience expects from me, and the director has sketched the role accordingly. Though it is a new genre to me, the mass element will not be missed," she says.

Malashri, who has been approached for interesting roles, is taking time to select her next. "Acting keeps me busy and happy, and my kids have been encouraging. They keep urging me to take up offers, especially when good offers are coming my way. I hope to be part of some good films," she says.

Produced by BS Chandrashekar under the Swarnaganga Films banner, the project features Pramod Shetty as an antagonist and will see Rangayana Raghu, Sadhu Kokila, Bigg Boss Season 8 winner Manju Pavagada in important roles. The director is also on the lookout for another heroine to share screen space with Malashri.

Sanchari Vijay's Taledanda to hit screens on April 1

CE FEATURES

SANCHARI Vijay's film Taledanda has cleared the censor board with a U certificate. After finishing festival circuits, the film is set to hit the screen on April 1. The film is directed by lecturer Praveen Krupakar, in association with the students of the Department of Film Studies, University of Mysuru. The film is a unique story, which depicts the present scenario of mother earth and its exploitation for men's selfish needs.

Sanchari Vijay plays the protagonist Kunna, a youth with moderate mental retardation and obsession with trees and plants. Taledanda, produced by Hemamalini Krupakar, co-produced by Arun Kumar, and will be distributed by Jagadish Films. The film also stars well-known theatre artists and actors Mangala Nagaraj Rao and Mandya Ramesh.

NAATI KOLI, THE FIRST TRACK FROM SHAMBO SHIVA SHANKARA OUT

Team Shambo Shiva Shankara

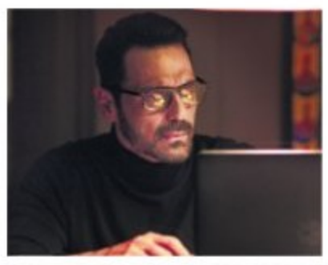
CE FEATURES

DIRECTOR Shankar Konamanahalli is getting ready for the release of his debut, Shambo Shiva Shankara. Ahead of the release, which is planned in May, the makers unveiled the first song on Sunday.

Titled Naati Koli, the peppy song composed by Hithan, is sung by Naveen Sajju and choreographed by Kalai Master.

Starring Abhay Punith and Sonal Monteiro in the lead, the film also features Shashikumar, Rakshak, Rohit, and Jogi Nagaraj in pivotal roles. The film has cinematography by Nataraj Madala. With themes of friendship and suspense, Shambo Shiva Shankara is backed by Varthur Manju and is now in the post-production stages.

'THE GAZE OF THE RAPIST IS COMPLETELY NEW'



Arjun Rampal discusses his intense role in Aparna Sen's The Rapist, which was recently screened at the ongoing IFFK

RAM VENKAT SRIKAR

ARJUN Rampal's baritone goes with the stoic characters he is known for essaying. The National Award-winning actor takes a long pause before responding to each question; at one point, I even wondered if it was due to poor network during our telephonic interview. The longest pause came when I pointed out that he has appeared in only a handful of films in the past decade, to which he replies, "I think one has to be selective, right? I'm clear about the kind of films that excite me and the roles I want to play. You have to tell me about the rest after seeing my work."

The actor's latest, The Rapist, directed by Aparna Sen and produced by Applause Entertainment, is a drama about a couple grappling with the consequences of a heinous sexual crime. His character, Aftab Malik, the husband of Naina (played by Konkana Sen Sharma) however, is not morally ambiguous, he says. "He does some silly things, sure, but his heart is in the right place." The film premiered recently at the ongoing International Film Festival of Kerala. In this conversation with Cinema Express, Arjun opens up about playing the emotionally taxing character, the experience of working with Aparna Sen, and more. Excerpts from the conversation:

What was your first impression of the script when Aparna Sen narrated it to you?

Even before listening to the script, I remember being stunned by how beautiful she still is; I was 50% on board immediately to do the film. When she gave me a complete narration, I was sure I had never seen something on these lines; her take and gaze on the crime, the way she broke down psyches of the victim and the victim's family, the situations, their concerns, trauma, confrontations... the narrative dwells into spaces that have never been explored, both in Indian cinema and internationally. It's heartwrenching but never preachy; it's brutally honest... and real. Moreover, Aparna's style of creating characters with nuances and layers is phenomenal.

It's a serious, even distressing, story. Was playing this character emotionally consuming?

Yes. However, extensive workshops before going on floors helped to a large extent. Aparna ma'am and I hail from a different school of thought, and it was important for us to understand each other... and collectively, the film. While I was familiar with the acting prowess of Konkana Sen Sharma, I wasn't familiar with her personally. The 7-10 day period that we spent together, reading the script, talking, and understanding each other, made the shooting experience easier.

We shot the film just before the second wave peaked last year. So it was tiring for the sheer number of hours we were putting in. I had a sense of disbelief when we finished principal photography so quickly, but on an emotional level, it's a feeling that lingers on. Also, we didn't go for many retakes. Aparna ma'am keeps aiming for realism and keeps going for it until she achieves it. Now, that can be tiring. (laughs)

Do atmospheric and realistic dramas like this give space to improvise and interpret the character differently?

I believe there is always a scope for improvisation, regardless of the film. Of course, the backing of layered and deep scripts like these helps. At times, one can plan a lot to act in a certain way and end up looking superficial and programmed; the performance might not successfully communicate the intended emotion. On the other hand, if you want to feel the character and want the audience to resonate with it, you do it with heart. The Rapist wasn't a choreographed film in that sense. There weren't instructions about standing or walking in a particular way. Be it a serious scene or a tiny action like changing your shirt, we had that freedom.

Did you discuss the morality of your character with Aparna Sen?

I did. In fact, her writing helps a lot. All the questions I had about Aftab Malik are addressed beautifully through my friend's character in the film; he's my alter ego of sorts. All the questions that run through my character's head or the viewer's head at any point of the story are smartly posited by this character albeit humorously. Yet, it's hard hitting and one cannot help but feel for Aftab. We witness how much he loves his wife (the victim of a sexual crime) and how their relationship has entered a dark, miserable phase, and both of them have to rediscover each other. That's the impact of a traumatic, selfish, disgusting, and repulsive act like rape creates. When a woman is raped, it's not just her who is raped... her whole family and environment is raped. It's equivalent to raping everyone who loves that person. The act has never been approached through this gaze. I mean, how will it affect the people around you? What happens to the life of the survivor? How will your friends look at you? Does the survivor really want sympathy? I don't think one will be in their thoughts all the time. After a time, it'll be fake sympathy, and that will be harder to cope with. These are some questions the film tries to address.
